Drawing Prompts for Kids

PROPHETS AND PROMISES: DEVOTIONS FOR ADVENT AND CHRISTMAS 2022–2023

These prompts are meant to keep children engaged in your family's Advent devotional practices. Some days don't have a prompt at all because the reading is less concrete. We hope these prompts will help your children connect with the Advent and Christmas story this winter!

November 27: Draw a picture of what peace looks like to you.

November 28: Draw a picture of a place where you feel safe.

November 30: Draw what you look like right when you wake up in the morning.

December 2-3: Draw a picture of your family, or sketch out a family tree.

December 4: Draw a picture of a branch growing out of a stump.

December 5: Draw a picture of animals getting along.

December 8: Draw a picture of what "welcome" looks like to you.

December 9: Draw a picture of someone being baptized.

December 11: Draw a picture of flowers growing.

December 12: Draw a picture of a place you like to go that has a lot of water, like a beach, a lake, a pond, or a fountain.

December 13: Draw a picture of a road, path, or highway that is easy to follow.

December 14: Draw a picture of someone who is happy.

December 15: Draw a picture of someone who is being taken care of.

December 16: Draw a picture of a farm.

December 18: Draw a picture of someone who is pregnant.

December 21: Draw a picture of people who are engaged.

December 22: Draw a picture of something you dreamt about.

December 24: Draw a picture of two people getting married.

December 25: Draw a picture of a newborn baby.

December 27: Draw a picture of people singing.

December 28: Draw a picture of nature being happy.

December 30: Draw a picture of wise people following a star.

January 2: Draw a picture of people bringing gifts to a baby.

January 3: Draw a picture of people moving to a new place to live.

Drawing Prompts for Kids

PROPHETS AND PROMISES: DEVOTIONS FOR ADVENT AND CHRISTMAS 2022–2023

These prompts are meant to keep children engaged in your family's Advent devotional practices. Some days don't have a prompt at all because the reading is less concrete. We hope these prompts will help your children connect with the Advent and Christmas story this winter!

November 27: Draw a picture of what peace looks like to you.

November 28: Draw a picture of a place where you feel safe.

November 30: Draw what you look like right when you wake up in the morning.

December 2-3: Draw a picture of your family, or sketch out a family tree.

December 4: Draw a picture of a branch growing out of a stump.

December 5: Draw a picture of animals getting along.

December 8: Draw a picture of what "welcome" looks like to you.

December 9: Draw a picture of someone being baptized.

December 11: Draw a picture of flowers growing.

December 12: Draw a picture of a place you like to go that has a lot of water, like a beach, a lake, a pond, or a fountain.

December 13: Draw a picture of a road, path, or highway that is easy to follow.

December 14: Draw a picture of someone who is happy.

December 15: Draw a picture of someone who is being taken care of.

December 16: Draw a picture of a farm.

December 18: Draw a picture of someone who is pregnant.

December 21: Draw a picture of people who are engaged.

December 22: Draw a picture of something you dreamt about.

December 24: Draw a picture of two people getting married.

December 25: Draw a picture of a newborn baby.

December 27: Draw a picture of people singing.

December 28: Draw a picture of nature being happy.

December 30: Draw a picture of wise people following a star.

January 2: Draw a picture of people bringing gifts to a baby.

January 3: Draw a picture of people moving to a new place to live.

AUGSBURG FORTRESS