

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction: A Cautionary Tale	1

Chapter

1	The Catholic Heritage	9
	Introductory Comments	9
	Where Do Morals Originate?	10
	What Is a Belief System?	11
	What Is Heritage?	12
	What Is the Christian/Catholic Heritage?	17
	Some Final Thoughts.	30
	Questions for Discussion.	32
	Suggestions for Further Reading.	32
2	A Narrative Model for Christian Ethics	33
	Introductory Comments	33
	Why Include Scripture in a Morals Text?	33
	Narrative: An Expanding Vision.	34
	Narrative: An Incomplete Vision	35
	The Christian Story.	38
	The Gospel of John: A Religious Experience.	41
	Some Final Thoughts.	53
	Questions for Discussion.	54
	Suggestions for Further Reading.	54

Chapter

3	A Reasonable Approach	55
	Introductory Comments	55
	Reason-Based Methods.	56
	Traditional Categories: Deontology and Teleology	57
	Bringing the Methods Together	75
	Beyond the Force of Reason	76
	Some Final Thoughts.	77
	Questions for Discussion.	77
	Suggestions for Further Reading.	78
4	Beyond Reason: Extending the Content Horizon	81
	Introductory Comments	81
	Other Voices	81
	The Place of Catholic Christian Thought.	83
	The Place of Law	85
	Voices from the Underbelly	88
	Insights from Modern Science.	97
	Cultural Differences	100
	Some Final Thoughts.	102
	Questions for Discussion.	102
	Suggestions for Further Reading.	103
5	The Person: Moral Subject and Moral Norm.	105
	Introductory Comments	105
	The Human Person Adequately Considered: An Overview.	106
	The Human Person Unpacked.	106
	The Human Person Adequately Considered: A Definitive Moral Norm	127
	Some Final Thoughts.	130
	Questions for Discussion.	130
	Suggestions for Further Reading.	131

Chapter

6	Conscience: Connecting Sources, Persons, and Actions . . .	133
	Introductory Comments	133
	Aspects of Conscience	134
	The Misdirection of Conscience	144
	Guilt	155
	Some Final Thoughts	160
	Questions for Discussion	161
	Suggestions for Further Reading	161
7	The Process: Steps for Moral Decision Making	163
	Introductory Comments	163
	What Is a Moral Dilemma?	164
	Who Is the Decision Maker?	167
	What Are the Morally Relevant Facts?	170
	What Are the Hidden Agendas?	172
	What Values Are Involved?	176
	What Is the Best Option?	178
	What Has Been Learned?	180
	Some Final Thoughts	182
	Questions for Discussion	183
	Suggestions for Further Reading	183
8	The Issues: Applying Catholic Tradition	185
	Introductory Comments	185
	“Making Love” and Making Babies	186
	Other Life Issues	192
	Justice Issues	203
	Some Final Thoughts	207
	Questions for Discussion	208
	Suggestions for Further Reading	208
	Postscript: A Modest Proposal	211
	Appendix 1: Additional Resources with Moral Dimension	217
	Appendix 2: Select Catholic Documents	219
	Appendix 3: Cases for Discussion	227
	Glossary	235
	Notes	247
	Index	257