Contents

Acknowledgments ix
Introduction 1

Niels Henrik Gregersen

PART I. CREATION AND INCARNATION: NEW TESTAMENT AND EARLY CHURCH PERSPECTIVES

1. The Incarnation and the Cosmic Christ 25
   Richard Bauckham

2. Word, Spirit, and Wisdom in the Universe: a Biblical and Theological Reflection 59
   Gerald O’Collins, SJ

3. Saint Athanasius on “Incarnation” 79
   John Behr

4. Saint Maximus the Confessor on Creation and Incarnation 99
   Torstein Theodor Tollefsen
PART II. DEEP INCARNATION: PERSPECTIVES FROM CONTEMPORARY SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY

5. Is God Incarnate in All That Is?
   Jürgen Moltmann

6. Jesus and the Cosmos: Soundings in Deep Christology
   Elizabeth A. Johnson

7. Incarnation and the Natural World: Explorations in the Tradition of Athanasius
   Denis Edwards

   Celia Deane-Drummond

9. Depth, Sign and Destiny: Thoughts on Incarnation
   Christopher Southgate

    Niels Henrik Gregersen

PART III. DIVINE PRESENCE AND INCARNATION: SCIENTIFIC AND PHILOSOPHICAL PERSPECTIVES

11. Divine Presence—Causal, Cybernetic, Caring, Cruciform: From Information to Incarnation
    Holmes Rolston III

12. Natural Incarnation: From the Possible to the Actual
    Stuart Kauffman

13. Incarnation and Faith in an Evolutionary Framework
    Dirk Evers
14. Jesus: The Way of all Flesh and the Proleptic Feather of Time
   Robert John Russell

   PART IV. CONCLUDING REFLECTIONS

15. Afterword: Reservations
    John Polkinghorne

16. Deep Incarnation: Opportunities and Challenges
    Niels Henrik Gregersen

   About the Authors
   Index