

CONTENTS

Abbreviations	vii
Deity Christology in a Jewish Context	1

Part I. Kyriocentric Visions in the Context of Crisis and Performative Prayer

1. Kyriocentric Visions in Early Judaism: Experiential, Literary, or Performative?	25
2. Motifs Associated with Kyriocentric Visions in Apocalyptic and Early Rabbinic Literature	43
3. Kyriocentric Prayers and Devotions as the Context for Visions among Early Disciples of Jesus	81

Part II. Kyriocentric Visions as the Impetus for Early Deity Christology

4. Conditions under which a Kyriocentric Vision Might Be Identified with a Deceased Human Being	101
5. Traces of Kyriocentric Visions in the New Testament	121
6. Kyriocentric Prayers and Devotions in the New Testament	149

Part III. Modifications of the Lord-Jesus Identification in the New Testament and the Early Church

7. Superposing Jesus Traditions and Deity Christology	179
8. Four Alternative Tradition Histories or Textures in Early Christology	233
9. Three Movements that Marginalized Visions of the Anthropoc Form of the Lord	265

Conclusion: Accomplishments and Some Unresolved Issues	303
Bibliography	309
Index of Contemporary Authors	349
Index of Biblical and Post-Biblical Texts	353