CONTENTS

Abbreviations xi
Preface xiii
Acknowledgements xv
Introduction 1

Remembering the Past in Creating the Future

Part I. Crossing Borders
1. Looking Back, Looking Around, Looking Ahead 17
   An Interview with Fernando F. Segovia
2. Resident Alien/Dual Citizen 49
3. Fostering Diversity Studies at Harvard Divinity School 65
4. On Becoming a Feminist Biblical Scholar 75
5. Feminist Studies in Religion and The*logy between Nationalism and Globalization 91
6. Changing the Paradigms 101
7. Visiting Japan 111
8. Has G*d Not Spoken with Us Also? 133

Part II. Memory and Movement
9. The Inside Stories 147
   Interview with Annie Lally Milhaven
10. Beginnings 165
    Articulating Feminist The*logy and Biblical Scholarship
11. Feminist The*logy and The*logical Education 187
    Helen Wright, S.N.D., In Memoriam
12. Feminist Studies in Religion and a Radical Democratic Ethos 193
13. Feminist Perspectives on Jesus, Discipleship, and Church 217
    An Interview with Robert A. Becker
14. Movement Struggles, Wisdom Places, Dreaming Spaces 223
15. An Interview with Yoke-Heng Woon for In God's Image 235
16. Our Heritage Is Our Power 251
   In Celebration of Wo/men's History Month
17. “AAR Martin Marty Award” Conversation with Judith Plaskow 265

Part III. Memory and Theory

18. Biblicon Interview with Alice Bach 293
19. Re-Visioning Christian Origins 315
   In Memory of Her Revisited
20. The "Quilting" of Wo/men's History 339
   Phoebe of Kenchreae
21. Looking Back and Looking Forward 351
22. Celebrating Feminist Work by Knowing It 357
23. Reaffirming Feminist/Womanist Biblical Scholarship 367
24. Reviewing my Work in a Roman Catholic Context 377
   The Jerome Award
25. Shaping the Discipline 383
   The Rhetoricity/Rhetoricality of N*T Studies

Part IV. Scripture as Site of Memory, Struggle, and Vision

26. Critical Reflections on Philosophy and The*logy 405
   An Interview with Michael Norton
27. Biblical Interpretation in the Context of Church and Ministry 413
28. Wo/men in the Pre-Pauline and Pauline Churches 423
29. Slave Wo/men and Freedom 447
   Some Methodological Reflections
30. The Apocalypse of John 471
   A Critical Feminist Perspective
31. The Cross as a Central Christian Symbol of Injustice 483
32. “I Have Not Come to Bring Peace but a Sword” (Matthew 10:34) 491
   Peacebuilding and the Struggles for Justice
33. The Calling of Mary of Magdala and Our Own
   A Sermon

34. Toward a Feminist Future of the Biblical Past