Contents

Abbreviations vii
Introduction xi

Why Atonement Is Compelling xiii
Revelation to the Wounded xv
The Approach Used Here xviii

1. Atonement as Purification 1
   Functions of Ritual 1
   Atonement Ideas in the Hebrew System 5
   Spiritualizing or Metaphorical Understandings 12
   The Psychology of Purity 14

2. Atonement as Compensation or Reciprocity 23
   The Nature of Sacrifice in the Old Testament 24
   Theories of Atonement Arising from Guilt 32
   Sacrifice as a Part of Reciprocity Systems 37
   No Inducement in the Kingdom 56

3. Attachment, Cruelty, and Coping 59
   Attachment Theory 60
   The Legacy of Cruel Punishing 66
   Ideologies of Payment through Suffering 69
   Not Your Fault 71
   A Case of Ambivalent Attachment 73
4. Rescue and Disgust in Paul
   - The Abstraction of Sacrifice in Paul’s Theology
   - Other Atonement Images in Paul
   - The Trouble with Images
   - Paul’s Psychology
   - The Problem with Atonement

5. Answers to Atonement
   - Paul Is “Participationist”
   - Paul Is “Restorative”
   - Paul Is “New Covenantal”
   - The Son Was Not Intended to Be Killed

6. Fear and Loathing in the Epistle to the Hebrews
   - Hebrews’ Dilemma about Sacrifice
   - Innocent Blood and a Fury of Fire
   - Another Soteriology in Hebrews

7. Atonement Played Out
   - Chronology of Theories of Atonement
   - Anxiety, Guilt, and Shame
   - Luther and Calvin
   - Ritual Murder
   - Without Price

   Conclusion
   - Wrestling with Propitiation
   - What We Can Say about Christ’s Death
   - No Need to Manipulate

   Bibliography
   Index of Names
   Index of Scripture and Pre-Modern Sources