Contents

Series Preface ix
Acknowledgments xi

1. Introduction 1

Part I. Definitions of Catholic Enlightenment

2. What is Catholic Enlightenment? Some Characteristics 25

3. The “Heresy-Hunting” of the Obscurantists and the “Martyrdom” of the Enlighteners: Forgotten Characteristics of Anti-Enlightenment and Catholic Enlightenment 43

Part II. Ecumenism and Theological Pluralism as Main Tenets of the Catholic Enlightenment

4. Ghosts of Westphalia: Fictions and Ideals of Ecclesial Unity in Enlightenment Germany 63

5. Enlightenment and Ecumenism: Beda Mayr (1742–94) 83

6. A Tolerant Theology? Catholic Irenicism, Pluralism, and Indifferentism 111
Part III. Church Reform

7. Johann Nikolaus von Hontheim’s Febronius: A Censored Bishop and His Ecclesiology

8. On the Way to Sacrosanctum Concilium: The Liturgical Renewal of the Eighteenth Century

Part IV. Catholic Exegesis and the Challenge of Enlightenment Criticism

9. The Bible among Catholic Enlighteners

10. The Conundrums of Eighteenth-Century Catholic Biblical Scholarship and J. L. Isenbiehl’s Interpretation of Isaiah 7:14

12. Apocalypse, Enlightenment, and the Beginning of Salvation History: The Ecumenical Friendship of J. J. Hess and A. Sandbichler

13. Moses and Apollo: The Beginnings of Comparative Religionsgeschichte in Catholic Exegesis

Bibliography

Publication Credits

Index of Names