Life among the Lutherans

GARRISON KEILLOR
 EDITED BY HOLLY HARDEN

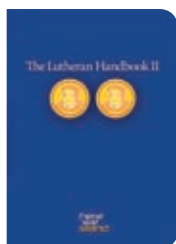

Based on Garrison Keillor's Lake Wobegon monologues, Life among the Lutherans is a collection of stories about the struggles of ordinary people in an imperfect world, the life and work of the pastor who leads them, and the church to whose high standards they aspire in the small town they call home. The stories in Life among the Lutherans reflect everything Keillor fans have come to expect of this master storyteller. Some are familiar, including the quintessentially Lutheran "95 Theses" from Lake Wobegon Days, others are new. Laugh out loud about the church directory filled with photos that are just plain awful. Share the moment when Pastor Ingqvist receives a leather-bound copy of his sermons. Keillor's command of every little detail of life in Lake Wobegon is bound to entertain, surprise, and make readers—even those who aren't Lutheran—feel right at home in the mythical community where "all the women are strong, all the men are good looking, and all the children are above average."

Garrison Keillor is an American author, storyteller, humorist, writer, and host of A Prairie Home Companion and The Writer's Almanac heard on public radio stations across the country. He was born in Anoka, Minnesota, and raised in a family belonging to a Plymouth Brethren congregation. Keillor has written many magazine articles and is the author of more than a dozen books, including Lake Wobegon Days, The Book of Guys, Love Me, and Homegrown Democrat.

40-Day Journey with Howard Thurman

40 DAY JOURNEY SERIES

DONNA SCHAPER, EDITOR

Howard Thurman was an influential American author, philosopher, theologian, educator, and civil rights leader. Strongly influenced by his grandmother, a former slave, who raised him and a Quaker mystic under whom he studied, Thurman adopted a philosophy of activism rooted in faith, guided by spirit, and maintained in peace. Editor Donna Schaper selects forty inspiring passages from the works of this spiritual advisor to Martin Luther King Jr. to accompany readers on their own spiritual journeys. Ideal for traveling through the seasons of Advent and Lent.

Donna Schaper is a spirited writer, speaker, and Senior Minister at Judson Memorial Church in New York City. Her mission is to provide spiritual nurture for public capacity so that people who hope in justice can experience that hope.

40-Day Journey with Maya Angelou

40 DAY JOURNEY SERIES

DONNA SCHAPER, EDITOR

Maya Angelou is hailed as one of the great voices of contemporary literature, having authored twelve best-selling books, including I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings. In this slim volume the legendary wisdom of this American poet, educator, historian, actress, director, and civil-rights activist is clearly evident in her own words. Editor Donna Schaper selects forty inspiring passages for readers to ponder while taking a spiritual journey with Maya Angelou. Such a journey may be made at any time but, as with other titles in the 40-Day Journey series, is especially inspiring to take in the seasons of Advent and Lent.

Donna Schaper is a spirited writer, speaker, and Senior Minister at Judson Memorial Church in New York City. Her mission is to provide spiritual nurture for public capacity so that people who hope in justice can experience that hope.

40-DAY JOURNEY SERIES

The 40-Day Journey series invites readers to take a personal spiritual journey with a Christian leader from the past or present. The books include a short introduction to the life of the leader and then offer forty chapters, each of which includes a reading from the author's writings, scripture selections from the Bible, a journal-writing exercise, and a prayer. The books are rich resources for personal meditation or small group discussion anytime, but especially during Advent or Lent.

Looking Anxiety in the Face

Wisdom for All Who Worry

LIVING WELL SERIES

HERBERT BROKERING

In this simple book, Herb Brokering comes face-to-face with many of his own anxieties and in the process teaches readers to quiet the noisy worries they confront in their own lives. While books on anxiety abound, the very personal and pastoral nature of this book sets it apart from the others. Beginning with the very first page, readers realize the presence of imagination and hope as Brokering puts words to his own angst. In doing so, he truly offers wisdom for all who worry.

Herbert Brokering is a noted author, poet, playwright, hymn writer, and popular speaker. He has penned more than fifty books, including the best-selling More Cat Psalms and More Dog Psalms, and most recently, In the Bleak Mid-Winter.

Looking Anxiety in the Face is a poignant, deeply personal account of one person's experience wrestling with anxiety—a common disorder that afflicts many people. Herbert Brokering gently brings the resources of faith into his battle with anxiety, finding comfort and strength in scripture, hymnody and prayer. His ardent hope is that by sharing his journey, others may find a source of inspiration and hope for their own journey.

Hunger and Happiness

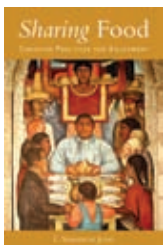

Feeding the Hungry, Nourishing Our Souls

L. SHANNON JUNG

In a world where there is so much food, why are so many people hungry? Amidst so much plenty, why aren't people happier? L. Shannon Jung insists that the two questions—one having to do with physical hunger, the other with spiritual want—are related. Hunger and Happiness exposes the atrocities of a global food system whereby the affluent "feed" at the expense of others, but then goes on to explore how complicity in the hunger of others contributes to the "spiritual malnourishment" of those who otherwise are well fed. Chapters address particular aspects of a global food policy that insures cheap food for some at great expense to many others. Jung considers the psychological and theological implications of such policy and after assessing the moral ramifications of cheap food, offers possibilities for alleviating physical hunger in the world and spiritual malaise in our lives.

L. Shannon Jung is Professor of Town and Country Ministries at Saint Paul School of Theology in Kansas City, Missouri. He served for many years as Director of the Center for Theology and Land, a rural ministry program of the University of Dubuque and Wartburg Seminaries. His books include Discovering Hope: Building Vitality in Rural Congregations (2001), Food for Life: The Spirituality and Ethics of Eating (2004), and Sharing Food: Christian Practices for Enjoyment (2006).

Holy Restlessness

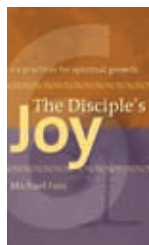

Reflections on Faith and Learning

PAUL J. DOVRE; FOREWORD BY PAMELA JOLICOEUR

Paul Dovre, consummate educator and churchman, speaks knowingly of the holy restlessness that is inherent in people of faith who wrestle with God's call even while heeding it. In this collection of chapel talks and homilies selected largely from his years as president of Concordia College, Moorhead, Minnesota, Dovre explores a "holy restlessness" that is at the very core of our being: A restlessness he describes as "unanswered and perhaps unanswerable questions... a restlessness that comes in trying to reconcile our need for unity as a people and the reality of our diversity... a restlessness found in the tension between suffering and hope." Ours is a restlessness made holy by God who calls us to deal with the restlessness we find in the world and in ourselves by acting in faith and "using our knowledge in the construction of helpful response."

Paul J. Dovre was President of Concordia College, Moorhead, Minnesota, from 1975 until his retirement in 1999. He was a visiting scholar at Harvard University in 1992, 1999-2000, and 2005-2006. Active in the Lutheran Church, Dovre served as vice chair of the Lutheran Council in the USA, a member of the Commission for a New Lutheran Church, and a member of the ELCA delegation to the Lutheran World Federation Assembly in 1990. The government of Norway designated Dovre Knight, First Class, of the Royal Norwegian Order of Saint Olav.

Holy Spirit

Creative Power in Our Lives

LUTHERAN VOICES SERIES

LOIS MALCOLM

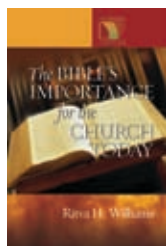

Who is the Holy Spirit? How does the Spirit work in our lives as individuals, families, communities, and in the world at large? What would happen if we claimed the promise of our baptism—that the Spirit truly is with us, creating within our bodies the new life we have in Jesus Christ? Drawing on Scripture, Luther’s writings, and contemporary theology, Lois Malcolm invites readers to experience the Spirit’s creative life and power—precisely within the complexity of our everyday lives.

Lois Malcolm is Associate Professor of Systematic Theology at Luther Seminary in St. Paul, Minnesota. She has published articles in theology and linguistics journals and presented papers at regional and national levels in the American Academy of Religion and the Society of Christian Ethics. She is the editor for the volume on modern theology for the Westminster Collection of Sources in Christian Theology.

Reclaiming the “V” Word Renewing Life at Its Vocational Core

DAVE DAUBERT AND TANA KJOS; FOREWORD BY KELLY A. FRYER

Centered in a definition of vocation that flows from Luther’s conviction that all Christians share the same vocation but live it out in various occupations and roles, Reclaiming the “V” Word challenges readers to see themselves as instruments of God’s mission—as church—wherever they are. From a strong foundation of Lutheran theology (reframed for twenty-first century application), the authors use real life stories and thoughtful exercises to help readers discern what this means for Christian life in today’s world. Reclaiming the “V” Word inspires readers with a renewed sense of purpose and clarifies guiding principles that will help them shape their work and relationships in the world God loves.

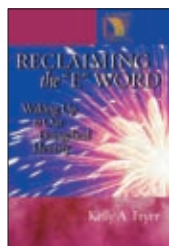

Dave Daubert is a founding partner of A Renewal Enterprise, Inc. (A.R.E.) and pastor of Zion Lutheran Church in Elgin, Illinois. Previously he served as Director for the Renewal of Congregations for the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and is the author of Living Lutheran in the Lutheran Voices series.

Tana Kjos is also a founding partner of A Renewal Enterprise, Inc. (A.R.E.), and regularly works with a variety of leaders and organizations to spark renewal and creativity in mission.

From Slavery to Freedom

A Personal Reading of the Exodus Story

JEFFREY A. KROGSTAD

From Slavery to Freedom focuses squarely on God's activity in bringing freedom to the Israelites enslaved in Egypt and offers assurance of God's desire to bring freedom to individuals today. By taking sin—and the pain and separation that goes hand-in-hand with it—seriously, Pastor Krogstad helps readers connect with God's purposes and God's power to set them free from whatever enslaves them—past failures, abusive behavior, harmful relationships, debilitating fears, and personal demons. From Slavery to Freedom provides readers with a deeper understanding of who God is and what Jesus accomplished for them on the cross.

Jeffrey A. Krogstad is Pastor of Evangelism and Discipleship at Central Lutheran Church in Elk River, Minnesota. He has written several Bible studies for congregational use and has published feature articles in publications as diverse as Christian Parenting Today and Bowhunter Magazine.

"So much more than a devotional exploration of Exodus, From Slavery to Freedom is an invitation to enter into the freedom of a real relationship with God. You need to read this one!"

—Michael Foss, author of Real Faith for Real Life and The Disciple's Joy

CONOZCA SU BIBLIA

Conozca
SU Biblia

Conozca su Biblia is a unique Bible series written in Spanish by leading Hispanic theologians and Bible educators. The series includes general volumes about the Bible, as well as volumes about specific books or groups of books in the Old and New Testament. Scripture texts are from the two most commonly used Bibles in the Spanish-speaking world: the Reina-Valera Revisada and the Version Popular. The series was developed in partnership with the Asociación para la Educación Teológica Hispana and the Division for Congregational Ministries of the ELCA. Justo L. González, the General Editor for the series, is a distinguished biblical scholar and the author of numerous books, including Hechos (Acts) in this series.
