Worship Planning Calendar Year A 2020

Something Small Is Coming...

Worship Planning Calendar has served the church as an appointment calendar, a template for planning worship, and a guide for daily prayer for years as an 8½" x 11" desk diary. Over the years we have listened to those who said they would appreciate this resource in a smaller, more portable format, similar in size to other planners available, without losing the rich content that makes it such a trustworthy companion to Sundays and Seasons.

We are happy to announce that beginning with Year A, 2020, Worship Planning Calendar will now be shifting to a smaller format of 5½" x 8½". This spiral-bound planner will continue to provide two-page spreads for each week and retain many of the features that enhance worship planning. Space is provided to record appointments and reminders for each day.

Hear My Voice: A Prison Prayer Book

A prayer resource for those who are incarcerated will be available in summer 2019. out at a room full of eager singers rediscovering hope and joy in the music. That is, all except for one woman who was sobbing in the back row. The rehearsal went on for an hour, and she cried the entire time. Just before the end, I asked her if everything was OK. "I don't know what's happening to me," she exclaimed. "I never cry!"

How often do we come at the world with our arms up, ready to fight? We build walls and resist all feeling. When we do this, we are not just protecting ourselves from bad things; we are refusing the good as well. But God is already there at work in us. We do not have to earn God's grace. We just receive it as a gift.

A Quote to Ponder

God's grace is a gift that is freely given to us. We don't earn a thing when it comes to God's love, and we only try to live in response to the gift. No one is climbing the spiritual ladder... We are simultaneously sinner and saint, 100 percent of both, all the time... We can't, through our piety or goodness, move closer to God. God is always coming near to us. —Nadia Bolz-Weber

A Question to Wonder About

How might you be standing in your own way of receiving God's grace in the form of Jesus Christ?

Prayer

God of grace, from the very beginning you have loved us as your own. When we want to keep out the good you have for us, make a way into our hearts. When we feel broken, mend us. When we doubt your grace, assure us that your song is true and lovely, even when we sing through our tears. I ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

Education

Luther's Small Catechism with African Descent Reflections

In connection with the observance of the five-hundredth anniversary of the Reformation events initiated by the 95 Theses, a distinguished group of African descent Lutheran theologians gathered at the offices of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) to explore and reflect on Luther's Small Catechism. While continuing to affirm the gift of the Small Catechism in the life of the church, they recognized that the meaning of these explanations of Christian faith could and should be broadened to address the historical, cultural, and linguistic experience of Lutherans of African descent, both on the African continent and in the diaspora.

In the Small Catechism Luther presented central articles of Christian faith, then asked and answered a critical question: "What is this?" or "What does this mean?" Luther's answers were contextual, addressing his historical, cultural, and social settings. This edition of Luther's Small Catechism not only presents a version of the Small Catechism widely used among Lutherans in North America today, but also, includes African descent reflections. These brief commentaries offer additional context, language, and illumination from the experiences of African descent people, both past and present, to enrich our understanding of the Small Catechism and enliven faith. Adapted from the introduction by the Rev. Dr. James Kenneth Echols (1951-2018).

Wondrous Love: Devotions for Lent 2020

This beautiful, full-color Lenten devotional highlights readings from the gospel of Matthew with 46 entries, one for each day from Ash Wednesday to Easter. Each reading is accompanied by a photo, a quote to ponder, a reflection, and a prayer. This accessible and colorful format makes it easy to incorporate a simple Christian observance into your Lenten journey.

Wondrous Love explores Jesus' journey from baptism to the cross and the empty tomb, as depicted in Matthew (the gospel focus for 2020, year A in the Revised Common Lectionary). Jesus predicts that he will be betrayed, arrested, abandoned, and put to death, yet he continues on to Jerusalem and the cross. The wondrous love shown by Jesus on this journey guides us on our baptismal journeys and inspires us to sing, serve, and share God's love with others.

Psalm 32:10-11

Great are the tribulations of the wicked;
 but mercy embraces those who trust in the LORD.
 Be glad, you righteous, and rejoice in the LORD;
 shout for joy, all who are true of heart.

To ponder

To know the way,
 we go the way,
 we do the way.
 The way we do,
 the things we do,
 it's all there in front of you.
 But if you try too hard to see it, 66

you'll only become confused.
 I am me and you are you.
 As you can see;
 but when you do
 the things that you can do,
 you will find the way.
 The way will follow you.
 —Benjamin Hoff, The Tao of Pooh

Surprises around the corner

One of the joys of summer is that it is prime season for hot air balloons. Turn a corner while driving, and you might just find a beautiful hot air balloon greeting you from a distance—a large, bright, colorful surprise that glides along effortlessly. Even more grand is seeing some twenty balloons together, filling the sky.

This is what God's mercy feels like: to be lifted up, time and time again, surrounded by the vibrant colors of God's grace and forgiveness. It is never-ending, and yet God's mercy often comes as a great surprise. When we feel we have done nothing to earn or deserve it, mercy comes to surprise us, because that's just who God is. All that's left to do is give shouts of praise and thanks to God, rejoicing in the merciful and bold surprises in our lives.

Prayer

God of grace, thank you for the endless mercy that you share so generously with us. Lift us up and fill our lungs with shouts of praise to you. Amen.

Good Grief

This three-book collection, Good Grief: The Complete Set, offers Good Grief, a foundation for understanding grief; The Good Grief Devotional, a collection of valuable insights for those who grieve; and The Good Grief Journal, a pathway for expressing, exploring, and growing from a significant loss.

Good Grief has helped millions of readers find comfort and rediscover hope after loss. It identifies ten stages of grief—shock, emotion, depression, physical distress, panic, guilt, anger, resistance, hope, and acceptance—but, recognizing that grief is complex and deeply personal, defines no right way to grieve.

In The Good Grief Devotional, fifty-two reflections on the stages of grief examine what each stage means for the reader's self-understanding and relationships with other people, creation, and God.

The Good Grief Journal includes a meditation on each stage of grief, followed by prompts, Scripture passages, poems, and quotes from a variety of sages to help journalers reflect deeply on their loss.

Whether mourning the death of a loved one, the end of a marriage, the loss of a job, or other difficult life changes, readers will want to return to these wise resources year after year as they are shaped by their journey.

Together By Grace: Introducing the Lutherans

Courageous. Trailblazing. Diverse. Action-oriented. When people think of the various Christian churches, those words might not be ones they attach to the Lutherans—but they should be! Yes, they have roots in northern Europe, but the people called Lutherans offer liberating insights into Christian faith, encompass a worldwide reach, and tell a story that goes back 500 years while pointing to the future.

This volume takes us on a journey across this broad landscape of faith and time. Over two dozen gifted writers—scholars, pastors, leaders, activists—paint a colorful map for this journey. Newcomers will find intriguing entry points, and lifelong Lutherans will discover new dimensions. Whether it's a passion for a grace-filled theology, worship and music that lift spirits, or a deep concern for wholeness and justice, Lutherans are engaged in the world, alongside other Christians and those of various faiths.

God's passion—to bring all things together by grace, to make us alive together with Christ—makes possible a life of living, daring confidence in God's grace. Together.

Honoring Our Neighbor's Faith

Hundreds of Christian denominations and dozens of non-Christian traditions have followers in the United States. How do we view this wide variety of beliefs and practices? How does the Lutheran tradition compare with others? Since its release in 1999, Honoring Our Neighbor's Faith has been widely embraced as a valuable resource for congregational study or personal exploration around these questions.

This Revised Edition brings new light and nuance to these questions, which are as timely and vital as ever. Use this book to explore thirty-two faith traditions that represent a wide spectrum of beliefs or stand out due to their size or public profile in America. Each tradition constitutes a “chapter” that includes key teachings, worship patterns and practices, and how each is governed. This revision also includes updated statistics, enhanced tools for group study and discussion, and updated resource and website lists to facilitate further study.

Seasonal Candles

Advent Wreath Candles

One of the best-known customs for the season is the Advent wreath. The wreath and winter candle-lighting in the midst of growing darkness strengthen some of the Advent images found in the Bible. The unbroken circle of greens is clearly an image of everlasting life, a victory wreath, the crown of Christ, or the wheel of time itself. Christians use the wreath as a sign that Christ reaches into our time to lead us to the light of everlasting life.

The four candles mark the progress of the four weeks of Advent and the growth of light. Our Advent wreath candles fit standard 1½" sockets. Choose from multiple heights and five color combinations.
