2021-2022

Dear Partner in the Good News,

"How can we support your ministry?" That question has taken on new and unexpected meaning over the past two years. As we all emerge from this time of pandemic, the shape of each church's ministry is likely to reflect some new realities as well as some restoration of the familiar. We are grateful for the partnership we share with you in the ministry of the gospel. We remain committed to supporting you and your community as you venture into the new and as you rebuild the trusted foundations from which you carry out your mission.

This catalog is one small way of doing that. Here are new, timely resources to help address our rapidly changing contexts. Here also are tried-and-true supplies for ongoing needs. We hope the resources represented here will support and serve you well in the various ministries of your faith community. Please circulate this tool among other staff and leaders who share in your work.

For more information on these and other resources from the imprints of 1517 Media—congregational resources from Augsburg Fortress and Sparkhouse, as well as titles from Beaming Books, Broadleaf Books, and Fortress Press—visit us online at augsburgfortress.org. As the new ventures of the coming year begin, may the Spirit bless you and those you serve with courage, energy, and grace in the church's mission of worship, learning, community, and service!

Heaven and Nature Sing: Devotions for Advent and Christmas 2021-2022

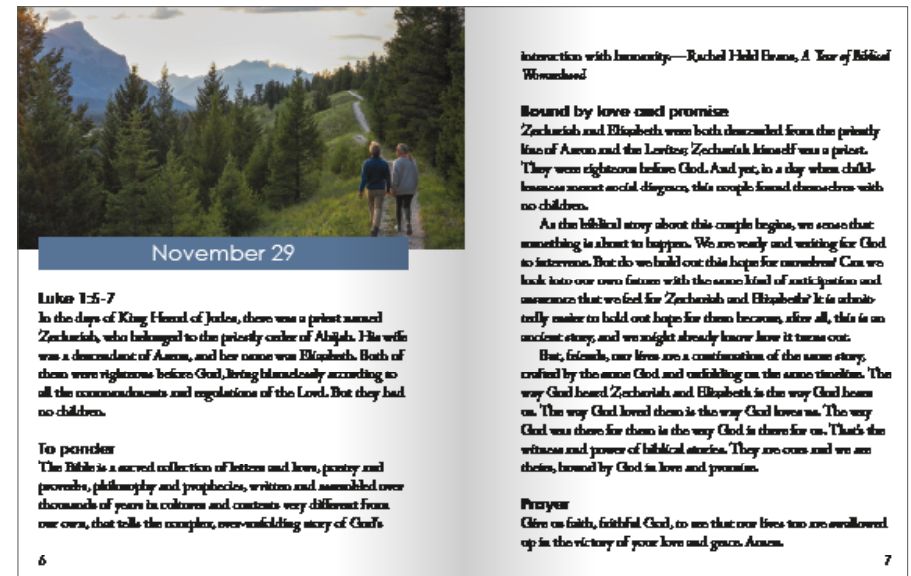

Explore the Advent season and celebrate the joy of the twelve days of Christmas and the day of Epiphany. Heaven and Nature Sing includes daily devotions based on year C scripture readings (in the Revised Common Lectionary) for Sundays and festival days between the first Sunday of Advent (November 28, 2021) and Epiphany (January 6, 2022). In addition to devotions, the book offers household blessings and prayers to enrich your preparations and celebrations.

The story of Jesus' birth in the Gospel of Luke is filled with song. Luke begins with the news that Elizabeth and Zechariah, despite their old age, will have a son who will prepare people for the arrival of the long-awaited Messiah. This is a prelude to the singing that follows from Elizabeth and Zechariah; Jesus' mother, Mary; the prophets Simeon and Anna; and even an angel choir! During these days of Advent and Christmas, may the good news of Jesus' birth fill our lives and our world with joy and peace. Let heaven and nature sing!

Also available in Large Print or as an eBook.

1-24 | $3.00
25-99 | $2.25
100+ | $1.75

Grace Unbounded provides daily devotions for each day from Ash Wednesday to the Vigil of Easter (traditionally known as Holy Saturday). Devotions begin with an evocative image and a brief passage from the Gospel of Luke (the gospel focus for 2022, year C in the Revised Common Lectionary). The writers then bring their unique voices and pastoral wisdom to the texts with quotations to ponder, reflections, and prayers.

In the Gospel of Luke, Jesus reaches out to all kinds of people. He proclaims good news—in particular, to those experiencing poverty, oppression, or captivity. Despite the tensions at the time between Jewish people and Samaritans, he tells a story about a Samaritan who shows what it means to be a neighbor. Jesus also responds to those who want healing, welcomes time with children, shows great regard for women, shares meals with “unsavory” characters, and seeks out people who have lost their way. No limits, no restrictions, no boundaries—not even death—can stop his love and grace for all people.

Also available in Large Print and as an eBook.

March 12

Luke 7:18-20, 22

John summoned two of his disciples and sent them to the Lord. . . . When the men had come to him, they said, “John the Baptist has sent us to you to ask, ‘Are you the one who is to come, or are we to wait for another?’” . . . And he answered them, “Go and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, the poor have good news brought to them.”

To ponder

We may wish for answers, but God rarely gives us answers. Instead, God guides us up into soft, familiar zones and says, “Let me tell you a story.” —Rachel Held Evans, Twisted

24

Welcome the journey

We often want clear answers from God to our questions. But God in Christ is less interested in answers than in journeys of discernment.

In our text, John asks Jesus a question. It's a straightforward one. It invites one of two answers. Jesus could have responded with a word—and John would have been happy.

But Jesus doesn't do that. Instead, he recounts recent events, inviting John to consider: “Here is what's happened. What do you think?”

I've experienced similar responses to my questions. I routinely ask God for answers—often by yes/no questions. I rarely get easy answers. Most often, I am prompted to consider scriptures, recent events, and others' input. Instead of answers, I sense an invitation to engage God in prayer and the Holy Spirit in discernment.

In the gospel, Jesus loves questions far more than answers. After all, questions begin conversations; answers end it. Questions start new journeys; answers often stop them.

If Jesus doesn't answer your questions quickly, don't be offended. He'd rather start a journey with you than end it.

Prayer

O Jesus Christ, lead us in discernment as we strive to journey faithfully, to hear your voice, and to embrace your presence. Amen.

The Memory Box: A Book about Grief

From the perspective of a young child, Joanna Rowland artfully describes what it is like to remember and grieve a loved one who has died. The child in the story creates a memory box to keep mementos and written memories of the loved one, to help in the grieving process.

Heartfelt and comforting, The Memory Box will help children and adults talk about this very difficult topic together. The unique point of view allows the reader to imagine the loss of anyone they have loved—a friend, a family member, or even a pet. A parent guide in the back includes expert information from a Christian perspective on helping children manage the complex and difficult emotions they feel when they lose someone they love, as well as suggestions on how to create their own memory box.

Advent Wreath Candles

One of the best-known customs for the season of Advent is the Advent wreath. The wreath and winter candle-lighting in the midst of growing darkness strengthen some of the Advent images found in the Bible. The unbroken circle of greens can be an image of everlasting life, a victory wreath, the crown of Christ, or the wheel of time itself. Christians use the wreath as a sign that Christ reaches into our time to lead us to the light of everlasting life.

The four candles mark the progress of the four weeks of Advent and the growth of light. Our Advent wreath candles fit standard 1½" sockets. Choose from multiple heights and five color combinations.
