

Ministry Resources & Church Supplies

2022-2023

Beloved people of God,

The past two and a half years have brought many challenges to congregational life. We've seen how congregations are responding, adapting, and growing in new directions. Our ministry is to support your ministry. We are grateful for the partnership we share with you as you renew and enliven worship, enhance and nurture faith, advance the practice of ministry, and bring the good news into your community and the world, through word and deed.

This catalog illustrates our support for your ministry. Here are timely resources to help address our rapidly changing contexts. Here also are reliable resources for ongoing needs. These are developed and provided with your help: hundreds of you serve as authors, reviewers, composers, and research respondents to inform and guide our work. May these tools for ministry serve you well. Please circulate this catalog with other staff and leaders who share in your collaborative work.

For more information on these and other resources from the imprints of Augsburg Fortress Publishers—congregational resources from Augsburg Fortress and Sparkhouse, as well as titles from Beaming Books, Broadleaf Books, and Fortress Press—visit us online at augsburgfortress.org. As the new ventures of the program year begin, may the Spirit give you courage and grace as you lead the church's mission of worship, learning, community, and action!

Pastor Martin A. Seltz
Vice President & Publisher, Congregational Resources Executive Director for ELCA Relations, Augsburg Fortress Publishers

Planning Checklist

- ☐ Support leaders as they prepare for the new year by ordering worship planning resources and preaching commentaries for 2022-2023 (year A, the year of Matthew).
- ☐ Help altar guilds, worship committees, and worshipers connect with the rhythms of the church year by ordering multiple copies of calendars.
- ☐ Order candles for Sunday and seasonal worship. Include Advent in your plans, as well as Christmas Eve and other times you may use handheld candles.
- ☐ Present a Bible or Evangelical Lutheran Worship to new members or to children and youth at milestones along their faith journey. Just a few of the possible times for such an enduring gift are Reformation Sunday, a Sunday in Advent, or a Sunday in Lent.
- ☐ Start a new subscription to our weekly bulletin and insert service or update your current subscription.
- ☐ Stock up on baptismal certificates, candles, and gifts for the newly baptized, being sure to explore our colorful and engaging new titles for children.
- ☐ Invite individuals and groups to reflection and conversation around the Bible and the life of the world, using devotionals, timely new small group studies, and thought-provoking books.
- ☐ Plan ahead by gathering your resource needs into fewer, larger orders to minimize rising shipping costs.

All Creation Sings

ACS Pew Edition

All Creation Sings goes hand in hand with Evangelical Lutheran Worship to support the church's mission of worship in word and sacrament that leads to service and justice in the world. Included are 200 hymns and songs, more than 30 of them multilingual and many being new since ELW was released. This body of song supports the rhythms of the whole church year and gives enlarged expression to themes of healing and wholeness, creation care, justice and peace, praise and lament. Here are two new communion services, one presented in Spanish and English, the other offering options for evening use. Also included are a contemplative service of word and prayer as well as more than 50 additional prayer resources, rounding out nearly 70 pages of liturgy content.

978-1-5064-4961-6 | $14.50

ACS Leaders Edition

The sturdy leaders edition includes everything needed for the worship leader to conduct the services. A section of Notes on the Services offers information and guidance to enhance leadership of the liturgies. Full rubrics and proper prefaces are included for the communion services. Expanded indexes facilitate worship planning. Enlarged print makes for ease of reading.

978-1-5064-4963-0 | $30.00

ACS Accompaniment Edition

An essential companion to the pew edition, this resource provides the liturgies with full accompaniments to their music as well as full accompaniments to the whole body of hymns. It also provides guidance on leading various genres of music, including narrative notes on many of the hymns. Spiral-bound landscape format minimizes page turns.

More Days for Praise

In this volume, teacher and scholar Gail Ramshaw shows how the Evangelical Lutheran Worship calendar of festivals and commemorations lifts up people who are both faithful and fascinating, always pointing to Christ. Each day's entry includes a brief chronology of the person's life; a summary of why the person is remembered by the church; an image of, or related to, the person commemorated; a quote from the person, where possible; and devotional hymn and prayer suggestions for the day.

978-1-4514-9621-5 | $22.00

Word of God, Word of Life

Gail Ramshaw lays out 10 foundational principles of the three-year lectionary in her lively and accessible prose, helping readers enter more deeply into how the Bible comes to life in worship. When a reading is concluded, worshipers may hear these words: "Word of God, word of life." This book advances the author's conviction and hope that "the more preparation we all can bring to Sunday morning, the more intentional might be our response: 'Thanks be to God.'"

New Choral Music

ChildrenSing Creation

This engaging collection for singers 8-12 years old provides 11 anthems that highlight a variety of themes related to creation, from the delight of God's creative activity to our role in honoring and caring for the earth. Composers include Helen Kemp, John Ferguson, and Mark Patterson.

978-1-5064-8663-5 | $32.95

This Night

This re-release of a classic F. Melius Christiansen Christmas anthem is based on the familiar tune used with "Oh, That I Had a Thousand Voices" and incorporates a part for children's choir or soloists, with adult choir. A brief anthem, "This Night" would make a beautiful introit on Christmas Eve.

978-1-5064-7991-0 | $1.75

Have Mercy on Me

Clayton White composes a gentle and reverent gospel ballad reflecting on an adaptation of Psalm 51. The choir sings the psalm verses with a solo voice responding, "Have mercy, O God." The choral writing is accessible, and a solo voice is integral to the anthem.

978-1-5064-8493-8 | $1.95

There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

In this creative and expressive anthem, Brenda Portman incorporates poetry from the familiar hymn that sings of God's mercy and love with words from Micah in which we're asked to act justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with God.

978-1-5064-8658-1 | $2.25

New Instrumental Music

Hymns of Joy and Grace, Volume 1

Characteristic of the series title, Sylvia Oines's writing encompasses a graceful style and a joyful spirit as she creatively treats each tune with a variety of pianistic techniques.

978-1-5064-8729-8 | $18.00

F. Melius Christiansen Organ Anthology

In celebration of the 150th anniversary of F. Melius Christiansen's birth, this anthology collects the best of his free works for organ along with transcriptions of his choral anthems. This edition features new engravings and updated registration suggestions and offers a chance to make available once again the best of Christiansen's organ works in a single volume.

978-1-5064-7993-4 | $39.00

Four by Four, Volume 2

Anne Krentz Organ continues this popular series of music for piano and four ringers (handbells or chimes) with a second volume based on general hymn tunes. These settings are well crafted, elegant yet accessible, and easily learned with minimal rehearsal.

978-1-5064-8731-1 | $28.00

Augsburg Organ Library: Lent, Series II

Augsburg Organ Library: Lent, Series II contains 43 pieces for worship or recitals based on Lenten hymn tunes. The Augsburg Organ Library is a highly acclaimed multi-volume series that reflects the 20th-century renewal of the organ and its music.

Worship Education Booklets

Kids Celebrate Booklets

Encourage the kids in your congregation to explore the hymns and songs of All Creation Sings with the new Kids Celebrate booklets. Designed to be used as activity books during and after worship, these resources encourage kids to explore the worship book and record their learnings in this booklet.

Topics include Worship, Hymns and Songs, the Trinity, and Creation.

A Time to Say Goodbye

A Time to Say Goodbye is a resource to help kids understand what happens at a Lutheran funeral and explore the emotions they may experience during the service and when a loved one dies. This resource includes content that engages kids in the service by explaining the service and what they might see in the church building, and gives examples of how to remember the loved one who has passed. Using the funeral service in Evangelical Lutheran Worship as a guide, this resource will guide discussion and learning during difficult times.

Prophets and Promises: Devotions for Advent and Christmas 2022-2023

1-24 | $3.00
25-99 | $2.25
100+ | $1.75

In ancient times prophets announced God's promises of a deliverer to the Hebrew people. As you read this devotional, look for these ancient promises, even in the Gospel of Matthew. Also watch for the different ways in which Joseph, the magi, and King Herod respond to the arrival of Jesus. Marvel at the power of God's promises, and the mystery of God with us in a newborn child.

Prophets and Promises continues the Christian tradition of setting aside time to prepare for the celebration of Jesus' birth and to anticipate his return. The Advent season of preparation then unfolds in the joy of the 12 days of Christmas and the day of Epiphany. You will find daily devotions here for the first Sunday of Advent (November 27, 2022) through Epiphany (January 6, 2023). Each devotion features a scripture reading (many from Matthew), accompanied by a photo, a quote to ponder, a reflection, and a prayer. The book also offers household blessings and prayers (see pages 86-94) to enrich your preparations and celebrations.

Also available in large print or as an eBook.

December 18 / Advent 4

Isaiah 7:10, 14
The Lord spoke to Ahaz, saying, . . . 'the Lord himself will give you a sign. Look, the young woman is with child and shall bear a son, and shall name him Immanuel.'

To ponder
I need a God who is with us always, everywhere, in the deepest depths as well as the highest heights.—Madeleine L'Engle, Two-Part Invention

Show us a sign
Signs serve one of four purposes: direction, pointing to destinations; safety, teaching rules and warning of potential dangers;

information, posting instructions; and identification, labeling where things are.

Signs are meant for strangers. When we know a place, we stop looking at signs. They move into the background and we begin to navigate subconsciously. Nothing makes this phenomenon more obvious than when a new traffic sign is installed in the neighborhood. The tendency to not see what is now there means new traffic lights must blink for a period of days before beginning operation. New stop signs must be new labeled "new" so residents are jolted off autopilot and into a new reality.

In Ahaz's day, things were changing. God promised a sign, a kind of new blinking traffic light for all to see. A young woman would have a child called "Immanuel," marking a transformational shift. God, it seems, would be with the people forevermore. Can you imagine Ahaz's response? He must have developed a heightened awareness as he began to anticipate the coming and nearness of God.

Can we anticipate God in the same way? Can we look for clues in the changes around us, both large and small? Perhaps God is making a way and creating a home in the things that seem unfamiliar to us. There are new signs all around us. They have the potential to change us, just as they must have changed Ahaz.

Prayer
From your nearness, O God, show us a sign. Amen.

Water and Spirit: Devotions for Lent 2023

1-24 | $3.00
25-99 | $2.25
100+ | $1.75

Water and Spirit provides daily devotions for each day from Ash Wednesday to the Resurrection of Our Lord/Vigil of Easter (traditionally known as Holy Saturday). Devotions begin with an evocative image and a brief passage from the Gospel of John. The writers then bring their unique voices and pastoral wisdom to the texts with quotations to ponder, reflections, and prayers.

For year A the Revised Common Lectionary assigns texts from John's gospel to the second through fifth Sundays in Lent, as well as Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Vigil of Easter. These texts are included in this devotional. Several of them are unique to John: Jesus urges Nicodemus to be born again "of water and spirit," offers "living water" to a Samaritan woman at the well, raises Lazarus from the dead, washes the disciples' feet, and surprises Mary Magdalene at the empty tomb. As you read the daily devotions, pause to think about how John describes water and the Spirit, and how water and the Spirit are at work in your life.

Also available in large print or as an eBook.

March 12 / Lent 3

John 4:7, 9-10
A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." . . . The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?" (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.) Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."

To ponder
I'm a Vietnam veteran, I did two tours in the jungle . . . and I came home from that. So I don't pass the flowers up; I smell them. A lot of guys used to try to rush to get done, and maybe get back to the garage and hang out a little bit. And that's OK. Everybody has their own way. But I always like the street; I always like talking to the people.—Angelo Bruno, sanitation worker, in Callings

God in the everyday
Going to the well to draw water was a simple, everyday chore. Like collecting the trash on the street, it must be done, over and over again, every day. Life-giving grace appears in the everyday moment in simple conversations with others.

Sometimes we long for amazing and outstanding moments to encounter God and rush past the small glimmers of grace in the everyday tasks of life. There is blessedness in greeting strangers and sharing a cup of water in the heat of the day. Jesus met the woman in her everyday chore with a simple request. In that moment, what she had to offer in drawing water became the very thing that carried the grace of God.

Prayer
God of everyday life, in our daily tasks of living, show us your presence and grace. Meet us in the mundane, training our hearts to wonder at your life-giving hope in Jesus Christ. Amen.

Making Sense Series

BIG QUESTIONS. GREAT CONVERSATIONS.

DAVID J. LOSE

Studies in the Making Sense series give people a framework to discuss questions like: Is the Bible true? How do Jesus' birth, death, and resurrection make a difference in our lives? How do we understand the cross of Christ? Who was Martin Luther, and why is he a big deal for Lutherans? Each session in a Making Sense course features a chapter to read and a video presentation by David Lose, as well as leader guide suggestions and activities that help you grapple with these questions in a group setting.

Seven or eight sessions per course. Four courses are available.

Books of Faith: Matthew

Throughout history Matthew's gospel has played a prominent role in Christian worship and practice, and to this day it retains a central place in most people's experiences of the New Testament and the Christian faith. Matthew envisions the church as made up of sinners and doubters who struggle with faith, temptation, and forgiveness, but ultimately reflect the ministry and presence of Jesus.

God's Own People: Studies in 1 Peter

The epistle or letter of 1 Peter reminds those who would follow Jesus that they are born anew into a wonderful inheritance as God's own people: trusted, called, made holy, and proclaiming. This doesn't guarantee that their faith won't be tested or that they won't experience suffering, but 1 Peter assures its readers that their relationship with God is guaranteed by the death and resurrection of Jesus. In the end, we won't be put to shame. And in the meantime, we cast our burdens on Christ, who loves us beyond measure!

God's Holy Darkness

In God's Holy Darkness, Sharei Green and Beckah Selnick deconstruct anti-Blackness in Christian theology by celebrating instances in the story of God's people when darkness, blackness, and night are beautiful, good, and holy. From the darkness at the beginning of creation to the blackness of the sky on the day when Christ's birth was announced to the shepherds, children learn that blackness is something to celebrate as an important element of the life of faith.

The Psychology of Christian Nationalism: Why People Are Drawn In and How to Talk Across the Divide

How do we overcome polarization in American society? How do we advocate for justice when one side won't listen to the other and cycles of outrage escalate? These questions have been pressing for years, but the emergence of a vocal, virulent Christian nationalism has made it even more urgent that we find a way forward.

The Audacity of Peace

Scot McKnight sketches a peace ethic that embodies the self-denial of Jesus to the point of the cross and then vindicated by God. Through God's grace and the indwelling Spirit, the participant in the way of Jesus is transformed. A peace ethic is a lived theology whose discerning witness transcends the specific principles and ideas of that theology.

Seasonal Candles

Advent Wreath Candles

One of the best-known customs for the season of Advent is the Advent wreath. The wreath and winter candle-lighting in the midst of growing darkness strengthen some of the Advent images found in the Bible. The unbroken circle of greens can be an image of everlasting life, a victory wreath, the crown of Christ, or the wheel of time itself. Christians use the wreath as a sign that Christ reaches into our time to lead us to the light of everlasting life.

The four candles mark the progress of the four weeks of Advent and the growth of light. Our Advent wreath candles fit standard 1½" sockets. Choose from multiple heights and five color combinations.
