Ministry Resources & Church Supplies

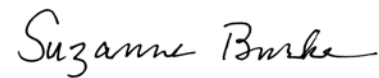

2024

Dear partners in ministry,

A new year offers new opportunities to invite more people to know the way of Jesus and discover community, justice, and love. At this time of change in the church and the world, we've seen how congregations are responding, adapting, and growing in new directions so that God's love is made real. We are grateful for the partnership we share with you as you renew and enliven worship, enhance and nurture faith, and bring the good news of God's liberating grace into your community and the world, through word and deed.

This catalog illustrates our support for your ministry. Here are timely resources to help address our rapidly changing contexts. Here also are reliable resources for ongoing needs. These are developed and provided with your help: hundreds of you serve as authors, reviewers, composers, and research respondents to inform and guide our work. May these tools for ministry serve you well. Please circulate this catalog with other staff and leaders who share in your collaborative work.

For more information on these and other resources from the imprints of 1517 Media—congregational resources from Augsburg Fortress and Sparkhouse, as well as titles from Beaming Books, Broadleaf Books, and Fortress Press—visit us online at augsburgfortress.org. As the new year begins, may the Spirit bless you and those you serve with courage, energy, and grace in the church's mission of worship, learning, community, and service.

Planning Checklist

- Support leaders as they prepare for weekly worship by ordering worship planning resources and preaching commentaries for 2024 Year B (the year of Mark).
- Help altar guilds, worship committees, and worshipers connect with the rhythms of the church year by ordering multiple copies of calendars.
- Plan ahead for your Easter Vigil, contemplative prayer services, or any time the worshiping assembly uses individual candles by ordering those along with any general use candles for Sundays and other occasions.
- Present a Bible or Evangelical Lutheran Worship to new members or to children and youth at milestones along their faith journey. Just a few of the possible times for such an enduring gift are a Sunday in Lent, the Day of Pentecost, or Reformation Sunday.
- Start a new subscription to our weekly bulletin and insert service or update your current subscription.
- Stock up on baptismal certificates, candles, and gifts for the newly baptized, being sure to explore our colorful and engaging new titles for children.
- Invite individuals and groups to reflection and conversation around the Bible and the life of faith, using devotionals, small group studies, and thought-provoking books on timely topics. www.augsburgfortress.org/mouthhouse
- Plan ahead by gathering your resource needs into fewer, larger orders to minimize rising shipping costs.

Using Evangelical Lutheran Worship, Volume 1: The Sunday Assembly

Addresses the general principles that have guided the shaping of Evangelical Lutheran Worship, considering that central liturgy of Christian worship, holy communion. This text examines how worship interacts with environment, music, and the preached word, and features useful and practical suggestions for all those who lead the assembly in communion.
978-1-5064-2510-8 | $22.00

Using Evangelical Lutheran Worship, Volume 2: The Christian Life

This book focuses on the formative role of baptism, not only for the individual being baptized, but for the church. It also examines the related rites of affirmation, welcome to baptism, and confession, as well as other rites in which the baptismal center is clearly seen.
978-1-5064-2511-5 | $22.00

Using Evangelical Lutheran Worship, Volume 3: Keeping Time

This title in the Using Evangelical Lutheran Worship series explores why Christians have different ways of looking at time, at how the life of the church is ordered and organized by days, weeks, seasons, and years. It provides detailed information about Sundays, festivals, seasons, and commemorations as well as daily prayer.
978-1-5064-2512-2 | $22.00

More Days for Praise

In this volume, teacher and scholar Gail Ramshaw shows how the Evangelical Lutheran Worship calendar of festivals and commemorations lifts up people who are both faithful and fascinating, always pointing to Christ. Each day's entry includes a brief chronology of the person's life; a summary of why the person is remembered by the church; an image of, or related to, the person commemorated; a quote from the person, where possible; and devotional hymn and prayer suggestions for the day.
978-1-4514-9621-5 | $24.00

Word of God, Word of Life

Gail Ramshaw lays out 10 foundational principles of the three-year lectionary in her lively and accessible prose, helping readers enter more deeply into how the Bible comes to life in worship. When a reading is concluded, worshipers may hear these words: "Word of God, word of life." This book advances the author's conviction and hope that "the more preparation we all can bring to Sunday morning, the more intentional might be our response: 'Thanks be to God.'"

Assembly Song Collections

Love Astounding: Hymns of Jeannette M. Lindholm

This collection contains twenty-three hymns by Jeannette M. Lindholm, hymns that give careful and thoughtful voice to the mystery and wonder of God and God's people. Her poetry not only invites us to sing but to examine and expand the metaphors we use for God in our worship and devotion.

978-1-5064-8006-0 | $17.00

So Great a Cloud of Witnesses: A Paul D. Weber Hymnary

As a pastor and musician, Paul Weber's hymn writing is patterned after Luther's conviction for spiritual songs that reflect a strong theological foundation, an esteem for the historic liturgy, and an understanding of the importance of congregational song for faith and worship. The tunes in this collection of 91 hymns were composed by Weber, who also wrote several of the texts.

978-1-5064-8007-7 | $24.99

Healing Leaves of Grace: A Thomas Pavlechko Hymnary

Thomas Pavlechko's music has been enriching assembly song for decades, and the forty hymns set to his tunes and collected here represent the latest chapter of his compositional endeavors. Each has been crafted with the assembly in mind, adding fresh and creative music to the worship life of the church.

Singing in Community: Paperless Music for Worship

Singing in Community invites you to reconnect with singing and leading music as generations before us have done, something actually begun in ancient times. Before Gutenberg made it possible to "put the music in people's hands," congregational song and folk hymns were led without printed music for each singer. We can learn to sing in this way—a practice that seems new, but is very old.

Over fifty songs are included, as well as useful notes on how to introduce your assembly to the tradition of singing without printed music. This songbook was developed in cooperation with Music That Makes Community, an organization working across the ecumenical spectrum to empower and liberate communities' spiritual life through singing. Orally transmitted music can become a powerful spiritual practice for your community and a way to build meaning, compassion, and creativity into worship.

New Music

Pull Out the Stops, Vol. 3: Congregational Song Accompaniments for Organ

The third volume in this popular hymn accompaniment series will enliven congregational singing and enrich worship. An introduction and one or more stanza accompaniments are provided for over 85 tunes, which draw from a variety of composers and styles. Many of the tunes can be found in the worship supplement All Creation Sings.

Four By Four Easter: Easter Hymns for Piano and Four Ringers

The fourth collection in this series by Anne Krentz Organ features four Easter hymn tunes set for piano and four handbell or hand chime ringers. These joyful settings can easily be learned by most ringers, yet the writing is engaging and gratifying for both ringers and pianist. Tunes included are EASTER HYMN, NOËL NOUVELET, PUER NOBIS, and a medley of VRUECHTEN/EARTH AND ALL STARS.

978-1-5064-9606-1 | $21.00

God of Hope: Global Hymn Tunes for Piano

This collection of eleven tunes features a rich variety of hymns, old and new, arranged by Mary Howarth in an engaging light jazz style. The South African hymn "God Welcomes All" is set in an energetic and rhythmic style while the traditional French carol "'Twas In the Moon of Wintertime" is beautifully set in a mysterious dreamy mood.

978-1-5064-9602-3 | $23.00

Lead Us On: Ten Hymn Settings for Piano

Bob Moore beautifully captures the mood of each hymn with a lyrical and improvisatory style in this collection of ten hymn tune settings for piano. All tunes can be found in the worship supplement All Creation Sings and include CANDLER, CEDARWOLD, COE FEN, and SINE NOMINE.

978-1-5064-9605-4 | $23.00

Merciful and Mighty: Six Settings for Organ

This collection by David Maxwell features three hymn tune settings and three original compositions for organ written with a range of styles from chromatic and lyrical to complex and triumphant. The three tunes included are LOBE DEN HERREN, MIT FREUDEN ZART, and NICAEA.

ChildrenSing Creation

This engaging collection for singers 8-12 years old provides 11 anthems that highlight a variety of themes related to creation from the delight of God's creative activity to our role in honoring and caring for the earth. Composers include Helen Kemp, John Ferguson, and Mark Patterson. To facilitate the learning process, this collection includes both the complete score with accompaniment for the director and a reproducible melody line version for the singer.

978-1-5064-8663-5 | $34.95

Young ChildrenSing, Volume 2

A collection of ten anthems for the youngest singers, each incorporating part of a familiar hymn into the musical fabric of each piece. A great way to introduce hymns to children while reinforcing their role as worship leaders when they sing. As with all ChildrenSing collections, the creative and economical format facilitates the process of learning to both read and make music by including the complete score with accompaniment for the director and a reproducible melody line version for the singer, many with optional instrumental parts.

Take My Voice and Let Me Sing: Music for Smaller Ensembles

With a mix of anthems scored for unison, 2-part, and SAB choirs, Wayne Wold writes well-crafted music for smaller sized choirs that is musically interesting and engaging. This set of 11 anthems covers the church year including the Christmas and Easter cycles. Wold's setting of "Alas! And Did My Savior Bleed" is creatively scored for 2, 3, or 4 parts in canon with flexible accompaniment suggestions.

Gathered into One: Devotions for Lent 2024

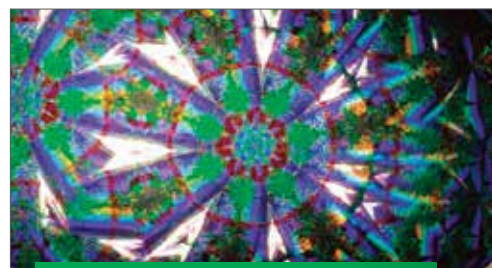

Gathered into One provides daily devotions for each day from Ash Wednesday to the Resurrection of Our Lord/Vigil of Easter (traditionally known as Holy Saturday). Devotions begin with an evocative image and a brief passage from First Corinthians. The writers then bring their diverse voices and pastoral wisdom to the texts with quotations to ponder, reflections, and prayers. Portions of First Corinthians appear in the Revised Common Lectionary during each lectionary year. The apostle Paul writes this letter to the church in Corinth after hearing of quarreling and divisions among the people. He teaches the Corinthians that each person has a unique set of gifts from the Holy Spirit, given for the common good, and reminds them that the church is the body of Christ, joined together with one bread, one cup, one baptism, one God, and one Spirit. This theme of unity amid diversity is as timely now as it was when Paul wrote to the Corinthians.

1 Corinthians 12:14-15, 18

The body does not consist of one member but of many. If the foot would say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. . . . But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose.

To ponder

This is Christ's body, broken and blest.
Feed us with mercy and love.
We are Christ's body, broken and blest.
Heal us and make us one.

Unity in diversity

Our bodies are incredible. Your heart beats and your lungs breathe your entire life, without you consciously thinking about it. Eyes are masterful instruments that refract light. Many people blink every three to five seconds. The tongue has 8,000 tastebuds. You have 100,000 miles of blood vessels. Everything works together to make possible all the things you do.

Paul pictures the church as a body, the body of Christ. When the church functions as it is meant to do, the many parts do not try to one-up or criticize each other. The foot doesn't see itself as less important than the hand. The church needs all the parts to contribute their gifts and work together as one.

What would happen if all the hands went to one church and all the feet went to another? Ditto eyes and ears. In a polarized society, we are at risk of that today. The problem Paul sees in Corinth is still with us.

God creates a kaleidoscope of people and gifts. Our differences are a strength, not a weakness, when we listen to one another and learn how to work together.

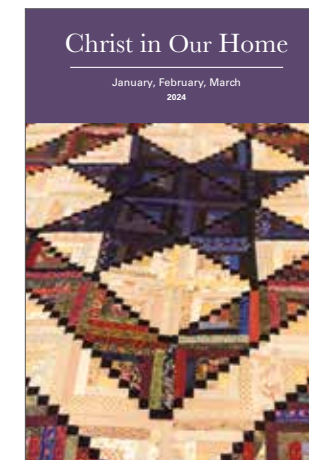

Prayer

We give you thanks, O God, for the great diversity in the world. Help us to love all the people you place in our path, and teach us to work together, as the body of Christ. Amen.

James 3:13-18

Right relationships

And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace for those who make peace. (v. 18)

Righteousness can be a confusing word and is seldom used outside matters of religion and faith. Righteousness is often equated with "perfection." While that is not totally off the mark, it doesn't quite describe how the word is used in the Bible.

Righteousness within the scriptures isn't so much about an individual person as it is about relationships: people in relation to God, one another, creation, and objects like money. Perhaps the best definition of righteousness is "being in right relationship."

Having right relationships in all facets of life is impossible if left up to us alone. But through baptism we are made inheritors of Christ's own righteousness. As the key to all other doorways, Christ's righteousness empowers us to grow toward right relationships with all others. To do so, we will draw on what James calls "the wisdom from above," which is peaceable, gentle, merciful, and full of good fruits (v. 17).

God of all, by your righteousness help us to be in right relationships in this life, especially with you. Amen.

perhaps they were even bickering—God took joy in them because they were God's children. Surely their faces lit up.

You too are a child of God. Not because of what you do. Because God loves you. God's face shines on you with delight. . . . and your face lights up.

Grace-shining God, thank you for declaring me your beloved child. Amen.

Psalm 148

One hundred blessings

Praise the Lord . . . snow and frost, stormy wind fulfilling his command! (vs. 7-8)

Based on a legend that a plague causing one hundred deaths a day stopped when leaders implemented a measure-for-measure response, a Jewish practice began of praying one hundred blessings a day. Though Psalm 148 predates this, its writer similarly calls on creatures to bless their maker: sun and moon, sea creatures; even fire and hail, snow and frost, and stormy wind are urged to bless the Lord.

While specifically worded Jewish blessings may be used, I find it uplifting to follow the spirit of the practice when out on a walk. Challenging myself to pray one hundred blessings, I notice and appreciate more of God's gifts than usual: "Bless you, Creator, for snowy tree branches, the puppy across the street, crisp winter air. Thanks for a warm coat, birds overhead, the man showing his neighbor's drive." This unique and fun prayer practice reminds me that all of life is a gift from the Lord, whose "glory is above earth and heaven" (v. 13).

Praise you, O God, for your gifts—more than I can possibly name! Amen.

Prayer concern: Safety for travelers

Hear My Voice: A Prison Prayer Book

This prayer book for those who are incarcerated comes in response to the call from the ELCA social statement “The Church and Criminal Justice: Hearing the Cries.” Hear My Voice: A Prison Prayer Book is a beautiful print resource intended primarily for those in correctional facilities; it can also be used by chaplains and others with relationships to those who are incarcerated. Congregations are encouraged to purchase and distribute to those in their communities who are serving sentences in the criminal justice system.

Developed through a collaborative process with the ELCA and Augsburg Fortress, Hear My Voice draws upon the gifts of writers with diverse connections to the criminal justice system. This enduring and conveniently sized book is enhanced with color artwork by Robyn Sand Anderson and provides prayers for many times and circumstances. It invites those who are incarcerated to spend time in prayer, trusting in God’s never-failing love for them and the whole world.

Ripple Effect
Whenever you are near a fountain or reflecting pool, follow this coin-tossing ritual. Instead of making a wish, say a brief prayer before the coin hits the water. Notice how the "ripples" makes an impact, creating rings of "ripples" that may go on long after the coin first breaks the surface. In Mark 1:24:1-44, Jesus reminds us that when we give from the heart, even a small offering makes a big difference. Look for creative ways to give away coins to help others.

A Time to Say Goodbye

A Time to Say Goodbye

A Time to Say Goodbye is a resource to help kids understand what happens at a Lutheran funeral and explore the emotions they may experience during the service and when a loved one dies. This resource includes content that engages kids in the service by explaining the service and what they might see in the church building, and gives examples of how to remember the loved one who has passed. Using the funeral service in Evangelical Lutheran Worship as a guide, this resource will guide discussion and learning during difficult times.

Making Sense Series

BIG QUESTIONS. GREAT CONVERSATIONS.

DAVID J. LOSE

Studies in the Making Sense series give people a framework to discuss questions like: Is the Bible true? How do Jesus' birth, death, and resurrection make a difference in our lives? How do we understand the cross of Christ? Who was Martin Luther, and why is he a big deal for Lutherans? Each session in a Making Sense course features a chapter to read and a video presentation by David Lose, as well as leader guide suggestions and activities that help you grapple with these questions in a group setting.

Seven or eight sessions per course. Four courses are available.

Worship Matters

Gain a richer understanding of Lutheran worship and explore why we gather, how we encounter God in worship, and how that encounter shapes our response in both our communities and our world.

Remembering God's Promises: A Funeral Planning Handbook

Remembering God's Promises offers notes and commentary on the funeral service in Evangelical Lutheran Worship, lists of suggested scripture readings and hymns, and information on other planning options. When the family and friends meet with the pastor, the funeral planning worksheet provides space to write down information and keep track of decisions that need to be made.

In addition, a free, downloadable pastor's guide includes an outline for four adult forum sessions on end-of-life decisions, hospice care, and funeral and burial planning. Pastors can also use the handbook to encourage individuals to plan their own funerals in advance.

Luther's Small Catechism with African Descent Reflections

In connection with the observance of the 500th anniversary of the Reformation events initiated by the Ninety-Five Theses, a distinguished group of African descent Lutheran theologians gathered at the offices of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) to explore and reflect on Luther's Small Catechism. While continuing to affirm the gift of the Small Catechism in the life of the church, they recognized that the meaning of these explanations of Christian faith could and should be broadened to address the historical, cultural, and linguistic experience of Lutherans of African descent, both on the African continent and in the diaspora.

Remind Me Again

Poetry can offer reminders for ourselves, each other, and the world. Poet, artist, and educator Joe Davis has written Remind Me Again: Poems and Practices for Remembering Who We Are, a collection of 41 poems that will inspire, challenge, and affirm readers from all stages of life. These poems speak to our mind, body, and spirit, to our community, and to our purpose. Each poem includes a “Try This Practice” to help readers connect the themes to their everyday lives. This book has three sections:

- My Mind, Body, and Spirit: Reminders for Myself
- My Community: Reminders for Each Other
- My Purpose: Reminders for the World

Mouth House

Mouth House books help people of faith navigate and respond to critical societal issues together. All titles are authored by leaders well-equipped to speak about topics that matter in the church and world. The series is inspired by Martin Luther’s words: “Therefore the church is a mouth house, not a pen house.” By amplifying voices for change, these books compel readers to move beyond the written word into deeper conversations and meaningful action in their communities.

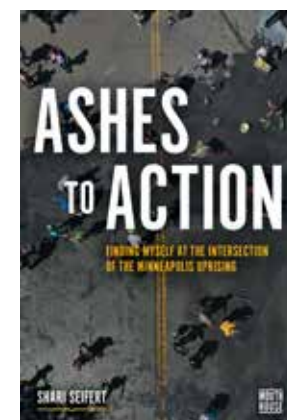

Call to Allyship: Preparing Your Congregation for Leaders of Color

How can churches do the work of becoming allies for the leaders they call? In belonging to a predominantly white denomination, ELCA members are called to listen and learn from its leaders of color to recognize the assumptions, biases, and harmful actions that result when congregations don’t do the work to become allies. Authors offer wisdom, storytelling, and concrete suggestions for churches preparing to call a leader of color. Call to Allyship is a must-read for call committees, church councils, social justice teams, and anyone prepared to do the work of understanding, welcoming, and celebrating these leaders.

Ashes to Action: Finding Myself at the Intersection of the Minneapolis Uprising

After the world witnessed the murder of George Floyd in Minneapolis, a passionate uprising erupted, with the intersection of 38th and Chicago at its epicenter. One block away stood Calvary Lutheran Church, an ELCA congregation whose members had engaged in racial justice work for years.

In Ashes to Action, Shari Seifert provides her riveting first-person account of the events following May 25, 2020. Shari joined others in the Calvary community to show up, listen, and ask what was needed in the moment. As the lines between her congregation and neighborhood blurred, the way toward a faithful response became clearer. This personal narrative stays rooted in the context of community, immersing readers in the days, weeks, and months following the uprising.

What If I Can't Explain God?

Explaining who God is can be really hard. Especially for grown-ups. They like to use confusing words like “Trinity,” “outside of time,” and “everywhere all at once.” What’s a kid to do if they can’t explain God? Maybe it’s not such a problem after all. The little girl in this story realizes there are so many things in the world that are hard to explain, but not hard to accept. So what if you can’t explain God? What matters is that God loves you—and that’s not confusing at all!

Sparrow's Prayer

Sparrow wakes each morning, ready to sing a prayer of thanksgiving. But not today. Today his words get tangled and knotted in his beak like old yarn and straw. He feels sad and gray, and he’s not sure why. So Sparrow decides to ask his friends Turtle, Mousie, and Buck for advice on how to pray. Each friend shows Sparrow a different way to pray without words, through generosity, art, and movement. As the day ends, Sparrow meditates on a rose aglow in the evening light and has an epiphany: Every living thing does what God created them to do. Each life is, itself, a prayer of thanksgiving.

Seasonal Candles

Advent Wreath Candles

One of the best-known customs for the season of Advent is the Advent wreath. The wreath and winter candle-lighting in the midst of growing darkness strengthen some of the Advent images found in the Bible. The unbroken circle of greens can be an image of everlasting life, a victory wreath, the crown of Christ, or the wheel of time itself. Christians use the wreath as a sign that Christ reaches into our time to lead us to the light of everlasting life.

The four candles mark the progress of the four weeks of Advent and the growth of light. Our Advent wreath candles fit standard 1½" sockets. Choose from multiple heights and five color combinations.
