Dear partners in ministry,

A new year offers new opportunities to invite more people to know the way of Jesus and discover community, justice, and love. At this time of change in the church and the world, we’ve seen how congregations are responding, adapting, and growing in new directions so that God’s love is made real. We are grateful for the partnership we share with you as you renew and enliven worship, enhance and nurture faith, and bring the good news of God’s liberating grace into your community and the world, through word and deed.

This catalog illustrates our support for your ministry. Here are timely resources to help address our rapidly changing contexts. Here also are reliable resources for ongoing needs. These are developed and provided with your help: hundreds of you serve as authors, reviewers, composers, and research respondents to inform and guide our work. May these tools for ministry serve you well. Please circulate this catalog with other staff and leaders who share in your collaborative work.

For more information on these and other resources from the imprints of 1517 Media—congregational resources from Augsburg Fortress and Sparkhouse, as well as titles from Beaming Books, Broadleaf Books, and Fortress Press—visit us online at augsburgfortress.org. As the new year begins, may the Spirit bless you and those you serve with courage, energy, and grace in the church’s mission of worship, learning, community, and service.

Planning Checklist

☐ Support leaders as they prepare for weekly worship by ordering worship planning resources and preaching commentaries for 2024 Year B (the year of Mark).

☐ Help altar guilds, worship committees, and worshipers connect with the rhythms of the church year by ordering multiple copies of calendars.

☐ Plan ahead for your Easter Vigil, contemplative prayer services, or any time the worshipping assembly uses individual candles by ordering those along with any general use candles for Sundays and other occasions.

☐ Present a Bible or Evangelical Lutheran Worship to new members or to children and youth at milestones along their faith journey. Just a few of the possible times for such an enduring gift are a Sunday in Lent, the Day of Pentecost, or Reformation Sunday.

☐ Start a new subscription to our weekly bulletin and insert service or update your current subscription.

☐ Stock up on baptismal certificates, candles, and gifts for the newly baptized, being sure to explore our colorful and engaging new titles for children.

☐ Invite individuals and groups to reflection and conversation around the Bible and the life of faith, using devotionals, small group studies, and thought-provoking books on timely topics. www.augsburgfortress.org/mouthhouse

☐ Plan ahead by gathering your resource needs into fewer, larger orders to minimize rising shipping costs.

More Days for Praise
In this volume, teacher and scholar Gail Ramshaw shows how the Evangelical Lutheran Worship calendar of festivals and commemorations lifts up people who are both faithful and fascinating, always pointing to Christ. Each day’s entry includes a brief chronology of the person’s life; a summary of why the person is remembered by the church; an image of, or related to, the person commemorated; a quote from the person, where possible; and devotional hymn and prayer suggestions for the day.
978-1-4514-9621-5 | $24.00

Word of God, Word of Life
Gail Ramshaw lays out 10 foundational principles of the three-year lectionary in her lively and accessible prose, helping readers enter more deeply into how the Bible comes to life in worship. When a reading is concluded, worshipers may hear these words: “Word of God, word of life.” This book advances the author’s conviction and hope that “the more preparation we all can bring to Sunday morning, the more intentional might be our response: ‘Thanks be to God.’”

<tr>
<td>So Great a Cloud of Witnesses: A Paul D. Weber Hymnary</td>
<td>As a pastor and musician, Paul Weber’s hymn writing is patterned after Luther’s conviction for spiritual songs that reflect a strong theological foundation, an esteem for the historic liturgy, and an understanding of the importance of congregational song for faith and worship. The tunes in this collection of 91 hymns were composed by Weber, who also wrote several of the texts.</td>

<tr>
<td>Healing Leaves of Grace: A Thomas Pavlechko Hymnary</td>
<td>Thomas Pavlechko’s music has been enriching assembly song for decades, and the forty hymns set to his tunes and collected here represent the latest chapter of his compositional endeavors. Each has been crafted with the assembly in mind, adding fresh and creative music to the worship life of the church.</td>

<tr>
<td>Singing in Community: Paperless Music for Worship</td>
<td>Singing in Community invites you to reconnect with singing and leading music as generations before us have done, something actually begun in ancient times. Before Gutenberg made it possible to “put the music in people’s hands,” congregational song and folk hymns were led without printed music for each singer. We can learn to sing in this way—a practice that seems new, but is very old. Over fifty songs are included, as well as useful notes on how to introduce your assembly to the tradition of singing without printed music. This songbook was developed in cooperation with Music That Makes Community, an organization working across the ecumenical spectrum to empower and liberate communities’ spiritual life through singing. Orally transmitted music can become a powerful spiritual practice for your community and a way to build meaning, compassion, and creativity into worship.</td>

Gathered into One: Devotions for Lent 2024

Gathered into One provides daily devotions for each day from Ash Wednesday to the Resurrection of Our Lord/Vigil of Easter (traditionally known as Holy Saturday). Devotions begin with an evocative image and a brief passage from First Corinthians. The writers then bring their diverse voices and pastoral wisdom to the texts with quotations to ponder, reflections, and prayers. Portions of First Corinthians appear in the Revised Common Lectionary during each lectionary year. The apostle Paul writes this letter to the church in Corinth after hearing of quarreling and divisions among the people. He teaches the Corinthians that each person has a unique set of gifts from the Holy Spirit, given for the common good, and reminds them that the church is the body of Christ, joined together with one bread, one cup, one baptism, one God, and one Spirit. This theme of unity amid diversity is as timely now as it was when Paul wrote to the Corinthians. Also available in large print or as an eBook.

Hear My Voice: A Prison Prayer Book

This prayer book for those who are incarcerated comes in response to the call from the ELCA social statement “The Church and Criminal Justice: Hearing the Cries.” Hear My Voice: A Prison Prayer Book is a beautiful print resource intended primarily for those in correctional facilities; it can also be used by chaplains and others with relationships to those who are incarcerated. Congregations are encouraged to purchase and distribute to those in their communities who are serving sentences in the criminal justice system.

Developed through a collaborative process with the ELCA and Augsburg Fortress, Hear My Voice draws upon the gifts of writers with diverse connections to the criminal justice system. This enduring and conveniently sized book is enhanced with color artwork by Robyn Sand Anderson and provides prayers for many times and circumstances. It invites those who are incarcerated to spend time in prayer, trusting in God’s never-failing love for them and the whole world.

Making Sense Series

BIG QUESTIONS. GREAT CONVERSATIONS.

DAVID J. LOSE

Studies in the Making Sense series give people a framework to discuss questions like: Is the Bible true? How do Jesus’ birth, death, and resurrection make a difference in our lives? How do we understand the cross of Christ? Who was Martin Luther, and why is he a big deal for Lutherans? Each session in a Making Sense course features a chapter to read and a video presentation by David Lose, as well as leader guide suggestions and activities that help you grapple with these questions in a group setting.

Seven or eight sessions per course. Four courses are available.

Luther’s Small Catechism with African Descent Reflections
In connection with the observance of the 500th anniversary of the Reformation events initiated by the Ninety-Five Theses, a distinguished group of African descent Lutheran theologians gathered at the offices of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) to explore and reflect on Luther’s Small Catechism. While continuing to affirm the gift of the Small Catechism in the life of the church, they recognized that the meaning of these explanations of Christian faith could and should be broadened to address the historical, cultural, and linguistic experience of Lutherans of African descent, both on the African continent and in the diaspora.

Remind Me Again
Poetry can offer reminders for ourselves, each other, and the world. Poet, artist, and educator Joe Davis has written Remind Me Again: Poems and Practices for Remembering Who We Are, a collection of 41 poems that will inspire, challenge, and affirm readers from all stages of life. These poems speak to our mind, body, and spirit, to our community, and to our purpose. Each poem includes a “Try This Practice” to help readers connect the themes to their everyday lives. This book has three sections:

- My Mind, Body, and Spirit: Reminders for Myself
- My Community: Reminders for Each Other
- My Purpose: Reminders for the World

Call to Allyship: Preparing Your Congregation for Leaders of Color
How can churches do the work of becoming allies for the leaders they call? In belonging to a predominantly white denomination, ELCA members are called to listen and learn from its leaders of color to recognize the assumptions, biases, and harmful actions that result when congregations don’t do the work to become allies. Authors offer wisdom, storytelling, and concrete suggestions for churches preparing to call a leader of color. Call to Allyship is a must-read for call committees, church councils, social justice teams, and anyone prepared to do the work of understanding, welcoming, and celebrating these leaders.

Ashes to Action: Finding Myself at the Intersection of the Minneapolis Uprising
After the world witnessed the murder of George Floyd in Minneapolis, a passionate uprising erupted, with the intersection of 38th and Chicago at its epicenter. One block away stood Calvary Lutheran Church, an ELCA congregation whose members had engaged in racial justice work for years. In Ashes to Action, Shari Seifert provides her riveting first-person account of the events following May 25, 2020. Shari joined others in the Calvary community to show up, listen, and ask what was needed in the moment. As the lines between her congregation and neighborhood blurred, the way toward a faithful response became clearer. This personal narrative stays rooted in the context of community, immersing readers in the days, weeks, and months following the uprising.

Spirit Wheel: Meditations from an Indigenous Elder

When the Spirit speaks to him in his daily prayers, Choctaw elder and spiritual explorer Steven Charleston takes a pen and writes down the messages. He then shares these thoughts with thousands on social media. In these musings, Charleston taps into the universal questions that draw us to prayer, no matter our spiritual background: Why am I here? Where do I belong? Where am I going?

In Spite of the Consequences: Prison Letters on Exoneration, Abolition, and Freedom

Falsely convicted of murder and sentenced to life in prison, Lacima Hamilton sent thousands of letters during his incarceration. After twenty-six years, including eleven years in solitary confinement, and a years-long campaign of public and political pressure, Hamilton was exonerated and released on September 30, 2020. The letters he wrote during his incarceration, advocating for his innocence—literally writing for his life—made him a leading voice on issues of abolition, imprisonment, and justice.

The Woman They Wanted: Shattering the Illusion of the Good Christian Wife

As a twenty-three-year-old singer and the soon-to-be wife of youth pastor Joshua Harris, nothing in Shannon Harris’s secular upbringing prepared her to enter the world of conservative Christianity. Soon Joshua’s bestselling book _I Kissed Dating Goodbye_ helped inspire a national purity movement, and released on September 30, 2020. The letters he wrote during his incarceration, advocating for his innocence—literally writing for his life—made him a leading voice on issues of abolition, imprisonment, and justice.

Raising Kids beyond the Binary: Celebrating God’s Transgender and Gender-Diverse Children

The debate around transgender children rages, with some Christians being the loudest voices against loving and supporting these young people. So, now more than ever, people of faith need to be grounded in God’s call to love and affirm young people in who God created them to be. Raising Kids beyond the Binary bypasses the sound bites to give readers a vivid picture of who transgender, non-binary, and gender-expansive young people are and what they need to thrive.

Lullaby for the King
With glittering poetry and stunning watercolor artwork, Lullaby for the King ushers readers into the awe and wonder of the Christmas story. Animals from across the ancient Palestinian landscape lumber, gambol, crawl, fly, and parade toward Bethlehem with gifts worthy of the newborn King. Rare ebony wood, a finely tuned harp, mustard and saffron, a zither, apricot cakes, and other treasures are carried to the manger. The animals bow low and join the music of the angels in a welcoming lullaby.

What If I Can’t Explain God?
Explaining who God is can be really hard. Especially for grown-ups. They like to use confusing words like “Trinity,” “outside of time,” and “everywhere all at once.” What’s a kid to do if they can’t explain God? Maybe it’s not such a problem after all. The little girl in this story realizes there are so many things in the world that are hard to explain, but not hard to accept. So what if you can’t explain God? What matters is that God loves you—and that’s not confusing at all!

Seasonal Candles

Advent Wreath Candles
One of the best-known customs for the season of Advent is the Advent wreath. The wreath and winter candle-lighting in the midst of growing darkness strengthen some of the Advent images found in the Bible. The unbroken circle of greens can be an image of everlasting life, a victory wreath, the crown of Christ, or the wheel of time itself. Christians use the wreath as a sign that Christ reaches into our time to lead us to the light of everlasting life.

The four candles mark the progress of the four weeks of Advent and the growth of light. Our Advent wreath candles fit standard 1½” sockets. Choose from multiple heights and five color combinations.
