

CONTENTS

	Contributors	vii
	Illustrations	xi
	General Editor's Foreword Denis R. Janz	xiii
Introduction	Unearthing a People's History Richard A. Horsley	1
Part 1. Early Jesus Movements
Chapter One	Jesus Movements and the Renewal of Israel Richard A. Horsley	23
Chapter Two	Why Peasants Responded to Jesus William R. Herzog II	47
Chapter Three	Women's History from Birth-Prophecy Stories Antoinette Clark Wire	71
Chapter Four	Turning the Tables on Jesus: The Mandaean View Jorunn Jacobsen Buckley	94
Part 2. Cities and Texts
Chapter Five	Conflicts at Corinth Ray Pickett	113
Chapter Six	Matthew's People Warren Carter	138

Chapter Seven	The Gospel of John as People's History Allen Dwight Callahan	162
Chapter Eight	Disciplining the Hope of the Poor in Ancient Rome Neil Elliott	177
Part 3. Social Patterns and Practices
Chapter Nine	Family Matters Carolyn Osiek	201
Chapter Ten	The Eyes Have It: Slaves in the Communities of Christ-Believers Clarice J. Martin	221
Chapter Eleven	Injustice or God's Will: Explanations of Poverty in Proto-Christian Texts Steven J. Friesen	240
Chapter Twelve	Prophets, Prophetic Movements, and the Voices of Women Barbara R. Rossing	261
	Abbreviations	287
	Notes	289
	Index	313