

Contents

Contributors	vii
Introduction	1
Mary J. Streufert
Part 1: LEGACIES AND MARGINS
1. Historical and Theological Legacies of Feminism and Lutheranism	15
L. DeAne Lagerquist and Caryn D. Riswold
2. The Elusive Lure of the Lotus	31
Mary (Joy) Philip
Part 2: GOD AND HUMANITY
3. Inhabiting Paradox: God and Feminist Theology for the Third Wave	45
Caryn D. Riswold
4. God's Heart Revealed in Eden: Luther on the Character of God and the Vocation of Humanity	57
Kristen E. Kvam
Part 3: SIN AND GRACE
5. Sin from a Queer, Lutheran Perspective	71
Mary E. Lowe
6. Who Are You? Christ and the Imperative of Subjectivity	87
Anna Mercedes
Part 4: THE WORK AND PERSON OF CHRIST
7. Through Mujerista Eyes: Stories of Incarnate Redemption	99
Alicia Vargas
8. Putting the Cross in Context: Atonement through Covenant	107
Marit Trelstad
9. Christ as Bride/Groom: A Lutheran Feminist Relational Christology	123
Kathryn A. Kleinbans

10. The Person of Christ from a Feminist Perspective: Human and Divine,
Male and Female 135
Mary J. Streufert

Part 5: SPIRIT AND BODY

11. Spirit and Body: A Lutheran-Feminist Conversation 153
Cheryl M. Peterson
12. Experiencing the Spirit: The Magnificat, Luther, and Feminists 165
Lois Malcolm

Part 6. KNOWING AND LIVING

13. Hush No More! Constructing an African American Lutheran
Womanist Ethic 179
Beverly Wallace
14. Being Church as, in, and against White Privilege 197
Cynthia Moe-Lobeda

Part 7: HOPE AND THE FUTURE

15. In the Flesh: A Feminist Vision of Hope 213
Krista E. Hughes
16. Hoping for More: How Eschatology Matters for Lutheran
Feminist Theologies 225
Deanna A. Thompson

- Notes* 237
Index 267