

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	1
Recovering the Preacher's Voice	4
Jesus' Vision and a Vision for Preaching	7
African American Preaching as Trivocal Preaching	10
African American Preaching as Practical Theology	15
1. The State of African American Preaching Today	19
Learning Habitats and the Preacher's Humanity	20
Black Homiletics Coming of Age: Two Leading Proposals	22
Will It Preach, Still?	26
Naming the Crises in the Village	30
2. A Venerable Yet Vanishing Tradition	33
The Rise of the Black Preacher	33
Colonial North America Period	37
Revival Period	41
Reconstruction Period	45
The Great Migration Period	48
Civil Rights Period	54
3. The Trivocal Impulse: A Call for Holistic Preaching	57
Prophetic Black Preaching: Building Up, Tearing Down	57
Priestly Black Preaching: Fostering Communal Trust	59
Sagely Black Preaching: Enabling Conversation	61
Three Contemporary Models of Practical Theology	64
Interdisciplinarity: Implications for African American Preaching	65
The Homiletical Upshot	74

4. A Homiletical Plan for Recovering One's Voice	77
Setting Up the Trivocal Sermon	80
Rules of Art	81
A Homiletical Map of Four Tasks of Sermon Preparation	88
Three Examples of Trivocal Preaching	93
Sermon One: We Are "We's" First	94
Sermon Two: The Ministry of the Towel	99
Sermon Three: We Have This Ministry	101
5. Trivocal Preaching in African America	109
Anointed Trivocal Preachers: King, Hall, and Taylor	110
"A Symphony of Voices": Other Sermon Excerpts	116
6. What the Church Expects, What the Village Needs	131
We Wear the Masks: Faces of the Black Preacher	132
Where Do We Go from Here?	140
Appendix: A Pocket Map for Four Tasks of Sermon Preparation	143
Annotated Bibliography	145
Notes	153
Index	167