

Contents

Preface	1
----------------	---

PART ONE THE FUTURE OF CHRISTIANITY

1. The Christian World	9
The Primal European Catastrophe and the End of Modern Christendom	14
2. The Rebirth of the Church	17
Three Paradigms for the Church	20
3. Hope for the Kingdom of God	29

PART TWO THE GOD OF RESURRECTION: CHRIST'S RESURRECTION—THE RESURRECTION OF THE BODY—THE RESURRECTION OF NATURE

4. In the End the Beginning	37
The Legacy of Our Time: Progress and Catastrophe	37
Resurrection: The Acknowledgment of Christ and Belief in God	39

5. The Raising of Jesus	43
The Disciples' Crucified Hope for the Future	43
The Women's Shaken Belief in Death	44
The Appearances of the Risen Christ	45
The Touchable yet Untouched Body of Christ	48
The New Being of the Risen Christ	53
6. The Resurrection of the Body	59
Resurrectio carnis?	60
The Eschatological Moment	62
A New Spirituality of the Senses	65
7. The Resurrection of Nature: The New Creation of All Things	67
Resurrection—The Meaning of Nature	68
Matter with Future	69
The 'Resurrection of Nature'	71
8. Life against Death	75
9. God's Kingdom Is the Kingdom of the Resurrection on Earth	79
The Kingdom of God on Earth	79
Resurrection against Death	81

PART THREE

GOD IS RIGHTEOUSNESS AND JUSTICE

10. No Monotheism Is like Another: The Dissolution of an Inappropriate Term	85
A Primal or Ur-Monotheism?	86
Was There a Covenant Monotheism in Israel?	90
Trinitarian 'Monotheism' in Christianity?	92
Is the Islamic Belief in God Pure Monotheism?	96
Monotheism: Exclusive or Inclusive?	98

11. Shekinah:
The Mystery of God's Presence in Judaism and Christianity	101
The Question: Where Is God?	101
Shekinah Theology in Scripture	102
The Interpretation of the Shekinah in Contemporary Literature	106
Shekinah Theology in the New Testament	110
Christ—Companion on the Way and Fellow Sufferer	114
12. Psalm 82:
Righteousness and Justice—The Measure of the Gods	117
The Assembly of the Gods	118
YHWH Calls the Gods to Repent	120
YHWH's Righteousness That Brings about Justice	122
The Poor and the Earth	123
The Mortality of the Gods	124
13. Sun of Righteousness:
The Gospel about Judgment and the New Creation of All Things	127
Justice in Mesopotamia, Egypt and Israel	127
The Last Judgment according to Christian Tradition: The Final Reckoning	132
The Sunrise of Christ's Righteousness and Justice	134
Dialectical Universalism	142
Postscript about the Universal Theology of Grace and the Particularist Theology of Faith and the Universal Glorification of God	148
14. The Triune God	149
The New Trinitarian Thinking	149
Perichoresis	152
The Trinitarian Experience of God	157
The Trinitarian Experience of Community	160
Trinitarian Experiences of Space	164
15. Face to Face: A Meditation on the Seeing of God	171
The Human Senses	171

Knowing and Loving	172
Wondering and Seeing	174
Face to Face	176
‘The Lord Spoke to Moses Face to Face as a Man Speaks to His Friend’	179
‘Now We See in a Glass Dimly, but Then Face to Face. Now I Know in Part but Then I Shall Know Even as I Am Known’	181
The Contemplation of God and God’s Presence in All Things	183
PART FOUR
GOD IN NATURE
16. Natural Science and the Hermeneutics of Nature	189
Do We Understand What We Know?	189
The Idea of the Two Books: Holy Scripture and ‘the Book of Nature’	194
The General Doctrine of Signs: Signatura rerum or the Signature of All Things	198
The Theological Doctrine of Signs	200
The World as Nature and as Creation: Theological Interpretative Patterns	202
The Sighs of the Divine Spirit in All Things and All People	206
17. The Theory of Evolution and Christian Theology: From ‘the War of Nature’ to Natural Cooperation and from ‘the Struggle for Existence’ to Mutual Recognition	209
Charles Darwin and ‘Natural Selection as Affecting Civilized Nations’	212
Possibilities of Artificial Selection: Eugenic Projects	214
The Neurobiological Thesis: ‘At the Centre of Biology Is Mutual Relationship and Cooperation’	217
The Genesis of More Complex Forms of Life	220
The World in Its Becoming—The Future in Its Coming	222
Notes	225
Index	249