

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments

1. Introduction: At the Crossroads of Lutheranism

Part One: Theological Foundations

2. The Problem of the Relationship between Justification and Faith in the Lutheran Dogmatic Tradition
3. The Contemporary Significance of Justification in the Theology of Paul Tillich
4. The Conflict between Karl Barth and Lutheran Theology on Justification by Faith
5. The Gospel of Justifying Grace and Justifying Faith

Part Two: Practical Applications

6. An Examination of the United States Lutheran Ecumenical Dialogues on Justification by Faith
7. The Meaning of Evangelization in the Context of God's Universal Grace
8. The Proper Distinction between Law and Gospel in Preaching
9. A Theological Critique of Pastoral Care and Counseling
10. The Doctrine of the Two Kingdoms Reexamined

Notes