

Table of Contents

Preface

Introduction to Volume Two: Professing the Faith

1. The Profession of Faith in North America Today
2. The Contextual Appropriateness of the Profession of Faith
3. The Organization of the Subject

Part I: Theology: The Christian Doctrine of God

Chapter One: “Credo in Deum”

1. The Knowledge of God
2. The Being of God
3. The Works of God

Chapter Two: Questioning the Father Almighty

4. A Critique of Pure Power
5. Reasons for the Ideological Triumph of the Positive
6. God in the North American Context
7. Summary: Power and the Powers

Chapter Three: A Suffering God?

8. After the Death of God, a Quest for Transcendence
9. Knowing the Living God
10. Emmanuel: God-with-Us
11. “God Is at Work in the World . . .”

Part II: Creaturely Being

Chapter Four: The World and Humanity as Professed by Faith

12. The Perspective
13. The Human Creature
14. Human Nature
15. Human Vocation
16. Creaturely Destiny and Historical Fulfillment

Chapter Five: From Mastery to Passivity

- 17. The Sisyphus Syndrome
- 18. The Elevation of the Rational Animal
- 19. Purpose Located in Superior Being
- 20. The Humiliation of “The New Adam”
- 21. The Corrective

Chapter Six: The Integrity of Creation

- 22. Perspective and Priorities
- 23. Affirming the World/Resisting Evil
- 24. Being and Human Being
- 25. Human Creaturehood and Calling
- 26. The Destiny of Creation

Part III: Jesus the Christ, Savior

Chapter Seven: Jesus—His Person and His Work

- 27. The Foundation and Core of Christian Profession
- 28. Christology: The Identity of Jesus