

Table of Contents

Preface

Abbreviations

Introduction

Relieving Misery, Preserving Social Order

Goals

Limitations

Sources

Perspectives

Part One: Reformation Initiatives for the Poor

CHAPTER 1: Poverty and Charity in the Middle Ages

The Concept of Poverty

Theology and Poverty

The Exigencies of Poverty

Medieval Urban Reactions to Poverty

The Secularization of Charity

The Church – Helper and Hinderer of the Poor

CHAPTER 2: Urban Realities and Reformation Ideals

Humanist Contributions and Ideas

Late Medieval Urban Developments

The Urban Reception of the Reformation

Luther's Theology and social Welfare

CHAPTER 3: Reforming Responses and Roman-Radical Reactions

The Evangelical Church Orders

Roman Catholic Reactions

Radical Evangelical Reactions

CHAPTER 4: Social Reform beyond Charity for the Poor

Focusing on Service to the Neighbor

Recasting Wealth, Poverty, and Salvation
Beginning with Doctrine

Part Two: Sources on Poverty and Social Welfare

CHAPTER 5: Late Medieval Attitudes to Begging and Poverty

Canon Law

A Sermon Illustration and "Concerning Hospitals for the Poor and Homes for the Lepers"

"On Charity Trusts"

"Concerning Begging"

Nuremberg Begging Order

Martin Luther's "Foreword" To Mathias Hutlin

CHAPTER 6: Renaissance and Reformation Perspectives

"Beggar Talk"

"There Should Be No Beggars among Christians"

"That Clergy Should Preach against Usury"

"A Conversation concerning the Common Chest"

CHAPTER 7: Social Welfare Legislation

Order of the City of Wittenberg

The Poor Order of Ypres

Bibliography

Index