

Table of Contents

Preface

Part I: American Public Theology at the Dawn of the Twenty-First Century

1. The Challenge of Public Theology
  - The Meaning of Public Theology
  - The Enlightenment Project and the Marginalization of Religion
  - The Deconstructing World
2. Current Options in American Public Theology
  - The Decline of Protestant Mainline Public Theology
  - The Rise of Catholic and Neoconservative Public Theology
  - The Future

Part II: The Paradoxical Vision

3. A Contemporary Interpretation
  - In Search of the Vision
  - The Paradoxical Vision
  - The Lutheran Difference
4. The Paradoxical Vision in Modern America: Official Lutheranism
  - American Lutheranism until 1960
  - The Lutheran Church in American (LCA)
  - The American Lutheran Church (ALC)
  - The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod
  - The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA)
  - Assessment of Official Lutheranism
5. The Paradoxical Vision in Modern America: Individual Expressions
  - Reinhold Niebuhr: Christian Realist
  - Glenn Tinder: Hesitant Radical
  - Richard John Neuhaus: Neoconservative

Part III: Love Connections: How Theology Becomes Public

6. Indirect Connections

- Shaping Heart and Mind: Indirect and Unintentional Influence
- Applying and Embodying the Vision: Indirect and Intentional Influence

7. Direct Connections

- Articulating Corporate Conscience: Direct and Intentional Influence
- Exercising Power: Direct and Intentional Action

8. Conclusion

Bibliography

Index