

Table of Contents

Preface

1. Origins

Speaking of JESUS

Meeting in God: Beyond self-absorption

In prayer

Re-imagining JESUS, re-imagining ourselves

"Those who are right"

The difference between self-righteousness and right relation

Self-absorbed spirituality

Who is JESUS CHRIST to those who are right?

Loneliness as a root of God, JESUS, and right relation

Suffering, evil, and human impatience

A white Southern Christian girlchild from the "muddled middle"

2. Speaking with Authority

The language of this book

Spiritual authority and knowledge of God

Theological imagination

Postmodern origins: Pitfalls and possibilities

3. Our Power in Mutual Relation

The problem with authoritarian power

Mutual relation: Can it be?

God is relational power

Thinking about "power"

But who are "we"?

And he is fully human and fully creaturely, and so are we

It is calling us to God

She is calling us to embody the (trinitarian) image of God

He is calling us to be holy

And yet...

4. Evil as Betrayal of Mutuality

Thinking about evil Seeking answers to tough questions

Obedience to the Father = the "right" answer

Sin, evil, and fear

God and evil

JESUS and evil

The temptation to betray: Evil generating evil

Fear of our power in relation as root of evil: Peter's denial

Intolerance of ambiguity as root of evil: Rejecting the sacred mysteries

Denial as root of evil: The rich man

Lack of compassion and willingness to do violence as root of evil: The "Holy Innocents"

Living in sin, responding to evil

5. The Passion of JESUS: Beyond Moralism

Moralism as a spiritual problem

What is passion?

Knowing the body as source of passion

Passionate vision

Passion as coming out for justice-love

Passion as solidarity with the poor, outcast, marginalized

Boundary breaking as passionate godding

Faith as basic resource of human passion

The limits of passion

Passion: Hologram of real presence

Passion: Ousia (essence) of incarnation, way of atonement

6. Learning Forgiveness: Way of Compassion

Several critical assumptions

Imaging atonement

The problem with the Christian atonement tradition

Patriarchal logic and blood sacrifice

Through the eyes of God

JESUS CHRIST as adversary

What forgiveness is

Is repentance absolutely necessary?

Compassion and nonviolence: A spiritual path

Compassion, nonviolence, and loneliness

What keeps forgiveness from being idealistic?

Epilogue

Liturgical Resources: Celebrating Resurrection

Blessing the Bread: A Litany for Many Voices

A Eucharistic Prayer

Variations on a Sufi Prayer

Blessing

The Great Thanksgiving: A Rite Based on the Song of Mary

A Eucharistic Litany of Mutuality and Solidarity

Notes

Selected Resources

Acknowledgments

Index