

Table of Contents

Preface

1. Violent Men in Our Communities: The Dynamics of Intimate Violence

The Ambiguity of Reconciliation

Encountering Violent Men: Revulsion and Hope

Working with Violent Men

The Dynamics of Domestic Violence

Power and Control

The Possibility of Healing

2. Violence: Destruction of the Mysterious Human Center

Cultural Influences on Violent Men

Are Men Inherently Violent Creatures?

The Hydraulic Model

A Girardian Interpretation of Violence

Ready to Snap like a Mousetrap

Gender and Violence

Media and Violence

Interpreting Violence as Constructive or Destructive

Crime and Punishment: Constructive or Destructive Violence?

The Warnings Offered by Violence

3. Does Christianity Throw Gas on the Flames of Violence?

The Classic Symbol of Marriage

The Marriage of Hosea

Historical Christian Interpretations of Marriage

Wives Be Submissive

Rape in Marriage

The Theodicy Question

Marriage as a Symbol of Hope

Images of the Divine

God in Control

God as Omniscient and Omnipresent

God's Vulnerability in Christ

4. Reconciliation: A Model for Addressing Male Violence

The Biblical Logic of Reconciliation

Reconciliation in the Early Christian Tradition
A Thomistic Interpretation of Reconciliation
Contrition
Confession
Satisfaction
Absolution

5. Reconciliation: A Responsible Approach to Intimate Violence

Scarring: An Important Metaphor for Understanding Violence
Healing the Individual: Reconciliation in the Individual Sphere
Contrition: The Recognition of the Face
Confession, Satisfaction, and Absolution
Healing the Interhuman Sphere
Healing the Community: The Social Level of Reconciliation
The Dialectic of Reconciliation

Appendices

1. Indicators that a Man May Kill His Partner
2. Accountability
3. Control Log: Men's Education Groups
4. An Annotated Website Bibliography

Selected Bibliography