

Table of Contents

Preface

1. Families, Christian Ethics, and Civil Society

The Family as Church

The Family and Civil Society

Conclusions: Three Convictions

2. Family Bonds and Christian Community: New Testament Sources

Family and Society in the First-Century

Mediterranean World

 The Jewish Context

 Jesus and Families

 The New Family of Believers

 Divorce Sayings

 House Churches

 The Evolving Christian Family

 Household Codes

 Christian Ritual Sacrifice

Conclusions: Christian Identity's Implications for the Family

3. Family as Church: Three Historical Representations

John Chrysostom

Martin Luther

The Puritans

Conclusions: Christian Views of Family and Children

4. "Domestic Church": Families and the Common Good

The Domestic Church Metaphor

Recent Catholic Themes

Family and Catholic Social Teaching

John Paul II and Families

The Practicality of the Message and a Grassroots Response

Families, Welfare, and the Bishops' Response

Catholicism, Economics, and Families

5. Lessons from African American Families

An Important Perspective

Some History

Current Factors

Community Solutions

Black Church, Domestic Church

Racial Equality, Civil Society, and Catholic

Social Teaching

Conclusions: Learning from African American Families

6. A Christian Family Vision

Ecumenical Christian Commitment to Families Today

A Program for Christian Families

Notes

Index