

Table of Contents

Contributors

Preface

Introduction

Eco-Justice: Church and Community Together

Larry Rasmussen

Part 1. Theology for Habitat Earth

1. Whose Earth Is It, Anyway?
James H. Come
2. Inclusion and Exclusion: Reflections on Moral Community and Salvation
Kusumita Pedersen
3. Fratricide and Ecocide: Rereading Genesis 2—4
Brigitte Kahl

Part 2. Overcoming Eco-Injustice in Earth Community

4. The Muslim World: Globalization and Ecology
Ibrahim M. Abu-Rabi
5. Affirming Life for the Disregarded Many
Martin Robra with Deenabandhu Manchala and Sarah Anderson-Rajarigam
6. Global Interdependence, the Earth Charter, and Christian Faith
Steven C. Rockefeller

Part 3: Environmentally Engaged Church and Community

7. Climate Change and Ecumenical Work for Sustainable Community
David G. Hallman
8. Seeking Eco-Justice in the South African Context
Ernst Conradie, Charity Majiza, Jim Cochrane, Welile T. Sigabi, Victor Molobi, and David Field
9. Issues of Community Empowerment
Peggy M. Shepard

10. These Stones Shall Be God's House: Tools for Earth Liturgy
Troy Messenger

Conclusion

The Church Ecologically Reformed Dieter Hessel

Appendix: The Earth Charter

Notes

Index