

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments

Editor's Note

INTRODUCTION

G.W.F. Hegel: Theologian of the Spirit

SELECTED TEXTS

1. Early Theological Writings (1793-1800)

Religion Is One of Our Greatest Concerns in Life

The Divine in a Particular Shape

2. Jena Writings (1802-1803)

Faith and Knowledge

The Resumption of the Whole into One

3. Phenomenology of Spirit (1807)

The Absolute as Spirit

The Science of the Experience of Consciousness

Religion

The Revelatory Religion

4. Encyclopedia of the Philosophical Sciences (1817, 1827, 1830)

Absolute Spirit: Art, Revealed Religion, Philosophy

5. Foreword to Hinrichs's Religion (1822)

The Reconciliation of Faith and Reason

6. Lectures on the Philosophy of Religion (1824)

Introduction: On the Philosophy of Religion

The Speculative Concept of Religion

Determinate Religion: Introduction

Christianity: The Consummate Religion

Notes

Select Bibliography

Index