

Preface

1. Introduction: The Issues and Their Importance
General Introduction and Agenda
The Importance of This Project
Strategies to Avoid the Issues
2. The Human: An Intersection of Disciplines
Conversation about the Human
Confronting Disciplinary Dissonance
Conclusion
3. Naturalistic and Theological Interpretations of the Human Theologians on Science and the Human
4. The Importance of Contents
Inferences to Be Drawn
5. Navigating the Intersections: The Light of Truth
Locating Differences in Interpretations: Description, Explanation, Evaluation, and Meaning
Mapping and Evaluating Differences in Outcomes: Rejection, Absorption, Accommodation
6. "The Almighty Has His Own Purposes": From Politics to Theology
"God Is Not Neutral": George W. Bush and Osama bin Laden
"God Prefers the Poor and the Oppressed"
"The Almighty Has His Own Purposes"

Notes