

Contents

Illustrations
Preface
Introduction

1. God Is Green

The Earth Crisis Is a Spiritual Crisis / Ecocidal Addiction
The Historic Agon of Spirit and Flesh
Earth, Air, Water, Fire

2. The Mother Bird God

God on the Wing / The Trinity and Paganism / Is God Female?
Biblical Imagery of the Earthen Mother Spirit

3. Green Spirituality, Brownfields, and Wilderness Recovery

The Current Environmental Debate
Toxic Sacrifice Zones and the Quest for Justice
Deep Ecology and Wilderness Activism
Mediating the Debate, Green Spirituality, and Market Values

4. Green Spirituality and the Problem of Humanism

Dr. Seuss' The Lorax / The Priority of Human Being
The Problem of Universal Reason in Humanist Thought
The Problem of Species Chauvinism in Humanist Thought
Extending the Horizon of Morality to Include All Life-forms

5. Green Spirituality and the Invitation of Postmodernism

The Challenge of Deconstructionism
Is Nature Real? / Riding the Cusp
Green Theology in a Postmodern, Constructionist Context
Kenneth Gergen's Social Constructionism

6. Earth God as the Wounded Spirit

In the Vatican Museums / The Cruciform Spirit
Spirit and Earth, Union of Heart / The Wounded God
Eating the Body and Drinking the Blood of God

7. The World Is Alive with Spirit

A Council of All Beings Ritual

Sojourning in the Crum Woods

The Crum Woods under Siege

The Crum Woods as the Wounded Sacred

Is the Crum Woods an Idol? / My Return to the River

Notes

Index