

CONTENTS

Contributors	ix
Preface	xv
Acknowledgments	xvii
Can Only One Religion Be True? Considering This Question • Robert B. Stewart	1
1. Can Only One Religion Be True?: A Dialogue • Paul F. Knitter and Harold A. Netland	17
2. Theologies of Religious Diversity: Toward a Catholic and catholic Assessment • Terrence W. Tilley	55
3. No Other Name: The Gospel and True Religions • S. Mark Heim	79
4. General Revelation, Inclusivism, Pluralism, and Postmodernism • Millard J. Erickson	91
5. Is Christianity the Only True Religion, or One among Others? • John Hick	105
6. John Hick's Monotheistic Shadow • Paul Rhodes Eddy	117
7. Why the World Is Not Religiously Ambiguous: A Critique of Religious Pluralism • Paul Copan	139
8. Has Normative Religious Pluralism a Rationale? • Keith E. Yandell	163
9. Religious Diversity and the Futility of Neutrality • R. Douglas Geivett	181
10. Can the Jews Be the Chosen People of God? • Nancy Fuchs Kreimer	203