

CONTENTS

| | |
|-----------------|----|
| Acknowledgments | ix |
|-----------------|----|

Part I. Introduction

| | |
|---------------------------------------|----|
| 1. Introduction: Well Water Deep Down | 3 |
| 2. How a Living Tradition Means | 19 |

Part II. From the Bible to the Reformation

| | |
|--|-----|
| 3. The Hebrew Scriptures | 33 |
| 4. The New Testament | 51 |
| 5. The Early Church Christian Faith and Concern for the Poor | 71 |
| 6. The Early Church Patristic Teaching on Ownership and Wealth | 87 |
| 7. The Beginnings of Monastic Life | 107 |
| 8. The Medieval Period Thomas Aquinas and Natural Law Ethics | 123 |
| 9. The Medieval Period Thomas Aquinas on Four Economic Issues | 139 |
| 10. The Protestant Reformation | 159 |

Part III. Resources for Interpretation

| | |
|--|-----|
| 11. The Development of Moral Teaching | 181 |
| 12. Engaging Controversies Today | 199 |
| 13. What We Should and Should Not Learn from Economics | 217 |

Part IV. Modern Church Teaching on Economic Life

| | |
|--------------------------------------|-----|
| 14. Pope Leo XIII and Pope Pius XI | 237 |
| 15. Pope John XXIII and Pope Paul VI | 257 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| 16. Contemporary Protestant Thought on Economic Life | 275 |
| 17. Pope John Paul II and Pope Benedict XVI | 301 |

Part V. Coming to Conclusions

| | |
|--|-----|
| 18. Principles for an Economic Ethic Today | 329 |
| 19. Implications for an Economic Ethic Today | 349 |
| 20. Society, Government, and Market: Getting the Relationships Right | 369 |
| 21. Conclusion | 383 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| Bibliography | 391 |
| Index | 405 |
| Additional Praise for Christian Economic Ethics | 411 |