

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Foreword	ix
Christine Vladimiroff, OSB
Introduction: The Bible through the Eyes of the Hungry	1
Lai Ling Elizabeth Ngan, Ahida Calderón Pilarski, and Sheila E. McGinn
1. Let All the Peoples Praise You: Biblical Studies and a Hermeneutics of Hunger	17
Kathleen M. O'Connor
2. Feeding the Poor in Isaiah 58:1-9a: A Call to Justice, Mercy, and True Worship	35
J. L. Manzo
3. From Drought to Starvation (Jeremiah 14:1-9): A National Experience, a Global Reality	51
Carol J. Dempsey, OP
4. War, Famine, and Baby Stew: A Recipe for Disaster in the Book of Lamentations	67
Laurens L. Wilkins

5.	Social and Theological Aspects of Hunger in Sirach Bradley C. Gregory	89
6.	“You Give Them Something to Eat” (Mark 6:37): Beyond a Hermeneutic of Hunger Mary Ann Beavis	111
7.	The Friend at Midnight (Luke 11:1-10) Linda Maloney	129
8.	An Empty Jar and a Starving Woman: Gospel of Thomas Logion 97 and a Hermeneutics of Hunger Susan M. (Elli) Elliott	135
9.	Including the Hungry Adelphoi : Exploring Pauline Points of View in 1 Corinthians 11:17-34 Ma. Marilou S. Ibita	159
10.	2 Thessalonians vs. the Ataktoi : A Pauline Critique of “White-Collar Welfare” Sheila E. McGinn and Megan T. Wilson-Reitz	185
	Contributors	209
	Select Bibliography	217
	Index of Names	243
	Index of Biblical and Ancient Literature References	247