

Contents

Preface to the Second Edition	ix
1. Introduction	1
2. Jesus: The Life-Giving Revealer	43
3. John: Witness Par Excellence	61
4. The World: Enveloped in Darkness but Loved by God	75
5. “The Jews”: Jesus’ Opponents Par Excellence	87
6. Andrew and Philip: Finders of People	103
7. Simon Peter: A Shepherd in the Making	113
8. Nathanael: The Genuine Israelite	131
9. The Mother of Jesus: A Catalyst in His Ministry	141
10. Nicodemus: In the Twilight Zone	155
11. The Samaritan Woman: An Unexpected Bride	169
12. The Royal Official: His Word Is Enough for Me	183
13. The Invalid at the Pool: A Lame Response	193

14.	The Crowd: A Faceless, Divided Mass	209
15.	The Twelve: Slow but Sticky	221
16.	Judas Iscariot: The Black Sheep of the Family	239
17.	The Man Born Blind: Once I Was Blind but Now I See	255
18.	Martha: The Ideal Johannine Confessor	271
19.	Mary of Bethany: At Jesus' Feet	281
20.	Lazarus: The Dead Shall Hear His Voice	291
21.	Thomas: Let Me See and Touch	303
22.	The Beloved Disciple: The Unique Eyewitness	315
23.	Pilate: Securing a Hollow Victory	333
24.	Mary Magdalene: Recognizing the Shepherd's Voice	347
25.	Joseph of Arimathea: Faith and Fear	357
26.	Conclusion	367
	Bibliography	397