

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	ix
Part 1: Why We Study Church History—Purpose	1
1. The Church Strives to Be One Family	5
Welcome to Your Story: The Story of the Church	5
The One Family of Christ Jesus: The Church	6
Many Members of the One Family	8
Practicing Hospitality toward Distant Relatives	10
Conclusion: Family First	11
2. The Church Strives to Be a Holy People	15
A Holy People?	15
Holiness in the Bible	16
A List of Grievances	18
Repenting of the Unholiness of the Church	20
Conclusion: Seeking to Become Holier	23
3. The Church Strives to Be a Catholic Body	27
The Universality of the Church	29
Three Ways to Become a More Catholic Church	31
Conclusion: Embodying the Catholicity of the Church	34

4. The Church Strives to Be an Apostolic Church	37
The Call toward Apostolicity	38
The Difference between Progress and Alteration	40
Insiders versus Outsiders?	42
Conclusion: Wrestling with the Past	44

Part 2: What We Study in Church History—Content 47

5. A Tomb in Italy Illumines the History of Christianity in Western Europe	51
The Story of a Tomb	52
The Catholic Church	53
The College of Bishops	56
Devotion to Relics	58
Conclusion: Still Adored after Nineteen Hundred Years	61
6. An Icon in Egypt Illumines the History of Christianity in the East	65
The Story of an Icon	66
A House Divided	67
Icons in the Orthodox Faith	71
The Monastic Movement	73
Conclusion: Christ the Almighty Reigns	75
7. A Stele in China Illumines the History of Christianity in Asia	79
The Story of a Stele	79
The Church of the East	82
The On-Again, Off-Again Church	84
The Collision between Eastern and Western Worldviews	86
Conclusion: Christianity in a Museum?	89
8. A Crucifix in the DRC Illumines the History of Christianity in Africa	93
The Story of a Crucifix	93
The Church in Africa	95
Cultural Clashes between African and European Christians	101
Conclusion: Lingerin Questions	103

9. A Cloak in Mexico Illumines the History of Christianity in Latin America	107
The Story of a Cloak	108
The Social Context of Latin America	109
Devotion to the Virgin Mary	112
Bridge between European and Indigenous Cultures	115
Conclusion: What a Difference a Cloak Can Make	116
10. A Warehouse in California Illumines the History of Christianity in North America	119
The Story of a Warehouse	120
American Pentecostal Churches	121
Revivalism in America	124
An Interracial Church	126
Conclusion: From Warehouse to World	129
11. A Boot in Fiji Illumines the History of Christianity in Oceania	133
The Story of a Boot	134
Christianity in the Isles	138
Foreign and Domestic Missionaries	140
A Clash of Civilizations	140
Conclusion: The Holy Clash Continues	143
Part 3: How We Study Church History—Method	147
12. A Medieval Forgery Illumines How to Write a Paper on Church History	151
The Story of a Medieval Forgery	151
Getting Started on a Research Paper	154
Collecting Sources	155
Formulating an Argument	156
Overcoming Barriers	158
Conclusion: Becoming a Budding Church Historian	159