St. Patrick’s Breastplate, adapt. TW

Joyfully, jig-like ( = 56–60)

We arise this day through the strength of heav’n, the radiant dawn and the moon’s bright glow, the splendor of sea and azure sky, the firmness of the earth below.

WE ARISE THIS DAY
We Arise This Day

1 We arise this day through the strength of heav’n, the radiant dawn and the moon’s bright glow, ... the splendor of sea and azure sky, the firmness of the earth below.

2 We arise this day through the love of God, whose strength and wisdom ... guide our way; ... whose eyes ... and ears attend our life; whose mercy keeps us safe this day.

3 We arise this day ... and welcome Christ, above, within, and ... at our side; in the hearts ... of all we meet this day, from morning sun to even-tide.

4 We arise this day ... be-lov’d of God, great consolation ... all our days, ... empowered in grace, alive in wondrous, grateful praise.
