

One morning they found pieces of bread
on the ground.

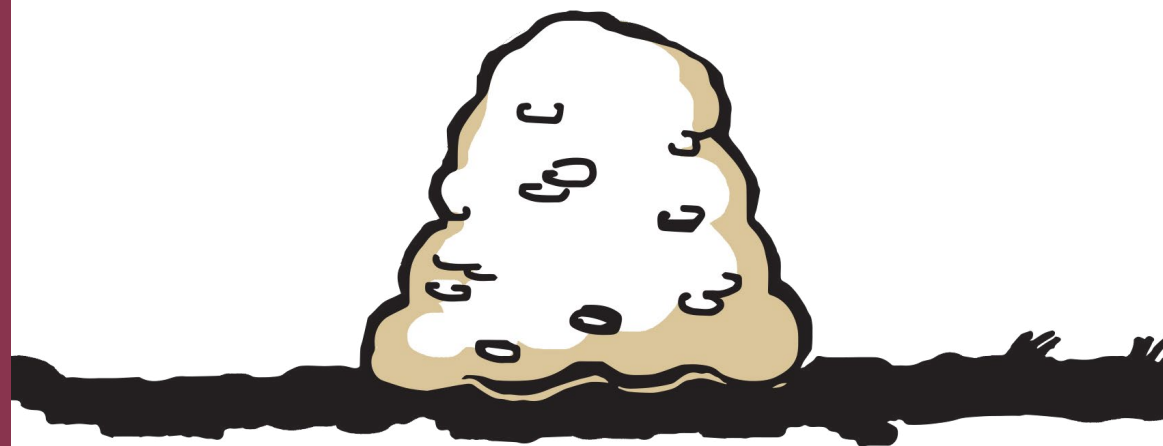

God sent the bread.
They called it manna.

But the people
started to worry.

What if God
forgot about them tomorrow?

So the people saved a big pile
of manna.

Then what happened, Mama?

The people learned to trust God's promise.

Every morning God sent manna.

Every day God promised, "See you tomorrow!"

Every day the people answered, "See you tomorrow, God!"

