

One Liturgy, Two Languages

Look on pages 8–28. Here you will find the order of worship in two different languages—Spanish and English—side by side. Can you match the words in both languages that have the same meaning?

Amén	Holy Spirit
Bautismo	Trinity
Credo	Baptism
Evangelio	Amen
Bendición	Word
Cena	Jesus Christ
Palabra	Sending
Gloria	Let us pray
Jesucristo	Gospel
Al congregarse	Meal
Oremos	Peace
Espíritu Santo	Creed
Santa Comunión	Gathering
Trinidad	Blessing
La paz	Glory
Envío	Holy Communion

Find someone at today's worship service who speaks Spanish and ask them to sign here:

What about the Leftovers?

What happens to leftovers in your house? Do they get saved for later? What about food scraps that no one will eat?

After communion is over and worship has ended, the leftovers from the Meal (the bread and the wine or grape juice) can't just be thrown away. As Lutherans, we believe that the bread is now both bread and the body of Jesus, and the wine or juice is now both wine or juice and the blood of Jesus.

Our tradition says that these leftovers either are consumed (that means eaten or drunk) by people or animals or returned to the earth in some other way.

Do you know what happens to the leftovers from communion in your worshiping community? Find the person who takes care of them and ask them to share this information on leftovers with you.

Report on what happens to the communion leftovers in this space, and ask the person to autograph it.

Autograph: _____

Worship Community Scavenger Hunt

Time to collect more autographs! Worship takes all kinds of people! Do your best to find all these people in your church and ask them to sign their names. If a description doesn't apply in your church, have a grown-up help you think of another description to use.

HELLO

MY NAME IS

Reads scripture during worship

HELLO

MY NAME IS

Leads the children's message

HELLO

MY NAME IS

Preaches a sermon

HELLO

MY NAME IS

Helps welcome people (usher, greeter, etc.)

HELLO

MY NAME IS

Prays the prayers

HELLO

MY NAME IS

Offers gifts of music (organist, choir member, etc.)