God sends us messengers.

Grapes, Grapes, Grapes!

Sing your story lines to the tune of Three Blind Mice.

Leader: Jesus said to the Pharisees, "Listen and wait!
I'll tell you a story so you get this straight.
A man built a vineyard with grapes everywhere.
He hired some workers. They gave him a scare:"

Kids: "Grapes, grapes, grapes! We want the grapes.
Grapes, grapes, grapes! We want the grapes."
The servants showed up, and they asked for the fruit:
"Just give us the grapes and we promise to scoot."
The workers were awful, and gave them the boot.
Grapes, grapes, grapes!

Leader: "The vineyard owner didn't know what to do.
So he sent his own son. But they hurt him too."
The Pharisees listened, but still had to learn,
That Jesus is with us, wherever we turn.

Today's Bible story, Parable of the Vineyard, is from the Gospel of Matthew.
Matthew wrote a book to tell us about Jesus' life. It is filled with stories that Jesus told. Grapes and vineyards are in some of his stories.

I'm a Messenger

Jesus was God's messenger. He came to bring the news, "God loves us!" But the Pharisees didn't listen to Jesus.

I listen to Jesus. I can be God's messenger.

Here is what I can say:

God loves you!

You are my friend!

Come to church
with me!

Let's read a
Bible story!

Here's a high five
for you!

Here is how I would deliver my message:

Here is my best idea of how I can be God's messenger:

Mystery Message

God sends us messengers—like Jesus! Let's help Jesus get through the maze with a special message from God. Pick up green letters along the way and write them in the blanks.
